DIVISION 1

LICENSING

7. (1) No person shall carry on business as a marketplace or ancillary facility in or from within the Currency Union, or hold himself out as, or engage in any act, action or course of conduct in connection with or incidental to the business of-
- (a) a marketplace; or
  - (b) ancillary facility,
- unless licensed by the Commission to do so under this Part.
- (2) If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may require a clearing facility and self-regulatory organisation to apply for a licence under this Part.
- (3) An application for a licence under this Part shall be made to the Commission in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by such fees and documents as may be prescribed.
- (4) At any time after receiving an application the Commission may require the applicant to furnish additional information in support of its application.
- (5) On application, the Commission may grant a licence to an applicant if the Commission is satisfied that all prescribed requirements have been fulfilled and to do so would be in the public interest.
- (6) A licence is effective until –
- (a) it is revoked by the Commission;
  - (b) it expires;
  - (c) the conditions for continuing the licence have not been met;
- or
- (d) the Commission accepts a surrender of the licence.
- (7) The Commission shall not refuse to grant, renew or reinstate a licence without first giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard.
- (8) Where the Commission refuses to grant, renew or reinstate a licence, it shall notify the applicant, in writing, of such refusal and the reason for such refusal.
- (9) Following receipt of the Commission’s decision in subsection (8) under this section, the applicant may file an appeal.
- (10) It shall be a condition of every license granted under this Part that –

Licensing

- (a) the licence is personal to the applicant and is not transferable; and
  - (b) a person to whom a licence is granted shall not, when conducting business for which a licence is required, use a name other than the name specified in the licence.
- (11) The Commission may grant, renew or reinstate a licence under this Part, where the applicant-
- (a) is considered by the Commission to be fit and proper;
  - (b) complies with the prescribed requirements;
  - (c) pays the prescribed fee.
- (12) The Commission shall refuse to grant, renew or reinstate a licence where such grant, licence, renewal or reinstatement is not in the public interest.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE

- 8. Where a securities exchange proposes to delist a security, it shall file with the Commission a concise statement of the substance and purpose of the proposal. Delisting of securities
- 9. Any disciplinary action taken by a securities exchange against a member in accordance with its rules shall be without prejudice to the power of the Commission to take such action as it sees fit with regard to the member or the licence held by the member. Disciplinary action over members of a securities exchange
- 10. (1) The Commission may, after consulting the holder of a securities exchange licence, direct it to close its market for a period not exceeding five trading days. Closure of securities exchange in emergency
- (2) The Commission may give a direction under subsection (1) if it is satisfied that the orderly transaction of business on the securities exchange is being, or is likely to be, prevented because –
- (a) of an impending emergency, or an impending or actual natural disaster in a [member territory]; or
  - (b) there exists an economic or financial crisis, in the Currency Union or elsewhere, or any other circumstance, which is likely to prevent orderly trading on the securities exchange.

- (3) The Commission may, in consultation with the Monetary Council, extend the direction for further periods but not exceeding ten trading days.

DIVISION 3

CLEARING FACILITY

- 11. (1) Property which may be subject to a market charge, or provided as market collateral, is – Market charge or collateral
- (a) money, letters of credit, bankers' drafts, certified cheques, and any similar instruments;
  - (b) securities; and
  - (c) futures contracts, and any similar financial contracts.
- (2) Where a charge is issued to secure liabilities arising directly with the clearing facility facilitating the settlement of a market contract and partly for other purposes, the charge shall be a market charge in so far as it has effect for that specified purpose.
- (3) Where collateral is granted partly to secure liabilities arising directly with the clearing agency facilitating the settlement of a market contract and partly for other purposes, the collateral is market collateral in so far as it has been provided for that specified purpose.
- (4) References in this Part to the law on insolvency include references to every provision made by or under –
- (a) the [applicable bankruptcy or insolvency Act];
  - (b) the [Companies Act]; and
  - (c) any other enactment which is concerned with or in any way related to the insolvency of a person.
- 12. (1) The rules of a clearing facility shall include provisions - Rules of Clearing Facility
- (a) where a participant appears to be unable, or appears to be likely to become unable, to meet the obligations in respect of one or more market contracts, to enable action to be taken to close out the participant's position in relation to all unsettled market contracts to which the participant is a party;
  - (b) where the clearing facility determines that the activities of a participant presents or is likely to present unreasonable risk

- to the clearance and settlement systems, to cease to act for the participant;
- (c) to enable the settlement of all of the contracts by providing for payment of money in relation to each contract by or to the participant, if that is required after taking into account all the rights and liabilities of the participant under or in respect of the contract concerned;
  - (d) to enable all sums of money payable by or to the participant as determined in accordance with paragraph (b) to be aggregated or set-off so as to produce a net sum, if any, payable by or to the participant;
  - (e) if any net sum referred to in paragraph (c) is payable by the participant, to provide for that net sum to be set-off against all property of the participant which is either subject to a market charge or which has been provided as market collateral (or set-off against the proceeds of the realisation of such property) so as to produce a further net sum, if any, payable by or to the participant;
  - (f) if any net sum referred to in paragraph (c) is payable to the participant, to provide that all property of the participant which is either subject to a market charge or which has been provided as market collateral shall cease to be subject to the market charge (but without prejudice to any other form of charge to which it may be subject) or to be market collateral (but without prejudice to its provision as any other form of collateral), as the case may be; and
  - (g) for the certification, by the clearing facility, of any net sum referred to in paragraph (c) payable to the participant, or of any further net sum referred to in paragraph (d) payable by or to the participant, as the case may be, or if there is no such sum, the certification by the clearing facility of that fact.
- (2) Where a clearing facility takes default proceedings, all subsequent action taken under its rules for settlement of market contracts to which the defaulter is a party shall be treated as taken under the default rules.

- 13. (1) On insolvency, bankruptcy or winding up, or on the appointment of a receiver over any of the assets of a person,
- (a) a market contract;
  - (b) the rules of a clearing facility for the settlement of a market contract;
  - (c) proceedings or other action taken under the rules of a clearing facility for the settlement of a market contract;
  - (d) a market charge;
  - (e) the default rules of a clearing facility; or
  - (f) default proceedings.
- shall not be invalid at law, for inconsistency with the law for distributing the assets of a person.
- (2) A person acting under the laws of insolvency, may not exercise any power to prevent or interfere with –
- (a) the settlement of a market contract under the rules of a clearing facility; or
  - (b) default proceedings.
- 14. A clearing facility shall, upon the completion of default proceedings, prepare a report to the Commission on such proceedings containing such information as prescribed and stating in respect of each defaulter –
- (a) the net sum, if any, certified by the clearing facility payable by or to the defaulter; or
  - (b) that no sum is payable.
- 15. (1) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of the [applicable bankruptcy or insolvency Act], where a receiving or winding up order has been made, or a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed, any net sum shall be-
- (a) provable in the bankruptcy or winding up; or
  - (b) payable to the relevant office-holder under the [applicable bankruptcy or insolvency Act] or in the case of a winding-up order under the [Companies or Securities Act].
- (2) This section applies to any net sum certified under section 16 by a clearing facility, payable by or to a defaulter upon the completion by it of any default proceedings.
- 16. (1) Where property is subject to a market charge or has been provided as market collateral, no execution or other legal process for the enforcement of a judgment or order may be commenced or

Proceedings of clearing facility take precedence over laws of insolvency

Duty to report on completion of default proceedings

Net sum payable on completion of default proceedings

Enforcement of judgments over property subject to market charge

continued, and no distress may be levied, against that property by a person not seeking to enforce any interest in or security over the property, except with the consent of the clearing facility concerned.

- (2) Where by virtue of this section a person would not be entitled to enforce a judgment or order against any property, any injunction or other remedy granted with a view to facilitating the enforcement of any such judgment or order shall not extend to that property.

- 17. Where a participant –
- Participants to be party to certain transactions as principal
- (a) in his capacity as such enters into any transaction (including a market contract) with a clearing facility; and
- (b) but for this paragraph, would be a party to that transaction as agent, then as between the clearing facility and any other person (including the participant and the person who is his principal in respect of that transaction), the participant is for all purposes (including any civil action, claim or demand) –
- (i) deemed not to be a party to that transaction as agent; and
- (ii) deemed to be a party to that transaction as principal,
- notwithstanding any other enactment or rule of law.
- 18. (1) A civil action, claim or demand, for a right, title or interest held by any person in securities or futures contracts deposited by a participant with a clearing facility in accordance with the rules of the clearing facility, does not lie, and may not be commenced or allowed, against the clearing facility or its nominees, notwithstanding any other enactment or rule of law.
- Securities deposited with clearing facility
- (2) The operation of subsection (1) in respect of securities deposited with a clearing facility is subject to any modifications and exclusions provided in the rules of the clearing facility.
- 19. (1) Except to the extent that it expressly provides, this Part does not operate to limit, restrict or otherwise affect –
- Preservation of rights
- (a) a right, title, interest, privilege, obligation or liability of a person;
- (b) an investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of the right, title, interest, privilege, obligation or liability.

DIVISION 4*GENERAL

- 20. Subject to the approval of the Commission, a market place or ancillary facility licensed under this Part shall make rules for the proper and efficient regulation, operation, management and control of the market place or ancillary facility. Rules of a market place and ancillary facility
- 21. (1) A holder of a market place or ancillary facility licence shall ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, an orderly and fair market in the securities that are traded through its facilities. Duties of holders of market place and ancillary facility licence
- (2) In performing its duties under subsection (1), the holder of a market place or ancillary facility licence shall –
- (a) act in the interests of the investing public; and
- (b) ensure that such interests prevail where they conflict with any other interests the company is required to serve under any other law.
- (3) The holder of a market place or ancillary facility licence shall ensure that members comply with its rules, this Act and regulations made under this Act.
- 22. (1) A person licensed under this Part that wishes to make an amendment to its rules or propose a new rule shall submit a draft of the proposed rule or amendment to the Commission for approval. Amendment of rules
- (2) Immediately following the receipt of a proposed rule or amendment under subsection (1) the Commission shall publish in one daily newspaper of general circulation, in each member territory, a notice inviting any interested person to submit written comments on the amendment and the reasonable cost of the publication shall be borne by the securities exchange.
- (3) The Commission may, by written notice, approve the rule or amendment or disapprove the whole or any specified part of the rule or amendment in question and, until such notice is given, the rule or amendment shall not have force and effect.
- 23. Where the Commission considers it necessary for the protection of investors or otherwise for the purposes of this Act, it may, by notice in writing, require the holder of a licence under this Part to make, amend or repeal any proposed rule or amendment to a rule, and, on the Commission delivering the notice, the person licensed under this Part shall comply with the requirement as soon as practicable after receipt of the notice from the Commission. Power to order amendment of rules

- 24. If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may make a decision about a person licensed under this Part, including a decision about –
- (a) the person's regulatory instruments;
  - (b) the person's procedures or practices;
  - (c) the services provided by the person;
  - (d) trading or quotation activity on a marketplace;
  - (e) a security or class of securities traded or quoted on a marketplace;
  - (f) an issuer whose securities are traded or quoted on a marketplace;
  - (g) any other matter that the Commission considers necessary for the effective administration of this Act; or
  - (h) such other matter as may be prescribed.
- 25. The holder of a licence under this Part shall provide such assistance to the Commission as the Commission reasonably requires for the performance of the Commission's functions, including the furnishing of returns and providing information in respect of dealings in securities or any other specified information as the Commission may require for the proper administration of this Act.
- 26. (1) Every person licensed under this Part shall appoint an approved auditor who shall conduct an audit of the person's financial statements within one hundred and twenty days of the end of the financial year, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and shall provide the Commission with the prescribed reports on the financial affairs of the person.
- (2) The Commission may impose all or any of the following duties on the auditor of a person licensed under this Part-
- (a) a duty to submit to the Commission such additional information in relation to the audit as the Commission considers necessary;
  - (b) a duty to enlarge or extend the scope of the audit of the business and affairs of the person licensed under this Part;
  - (c) a duty to carry out any other examination or establish any procedure in any particular case;
  - (d) a duty to submit a report to the Commission on any of the matters referred to in paragraph (b) or (c),

Commission power to supervise

Assistance to the Commission

Appointment of auditor

and the auditor shall carry out such additional duty or duties.

- (3) The person licensed under this Part shall remunerate the auditor in respect of the discharge of such additional duties imposed under subsection (2).

27. (1) A securities exchange or self-regulatory organisation may establish and maintain a contingency fund in the prescribed manner. Contingency and assurance fund

- (2) A clearing facility shall establish and maintain a settlement assurance fund, in the prescribed manner, to address the failure by any of its participants to deliver securities or monies required by the rules of the clearing facility.

- (3) The securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organisation shall file with the Commission the constituent documents of a fund required by this section and such other documents as may be prescribed.

- (4) Where, after consultation with the securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organisation -

(a) the Commission reasonably believes that a fund established under this section does not contain sufficient assets to meet its purpose; and

(b) the securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organization fails to contribute to the fund established under this section, an increased amount sufficient to maintain the assets of the fund at a level that the Commission believes to be reasonably necessary to pay claims against the fund, the Commission may make an order requiring the securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organisation to contribute to such fund such amount required to attain the level that the Commission believes to be reasonably necessary to pay the claims.

- (5) The securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organisation shall at any time-

(a) permit a person authorised by the Commission in writing, to inspect the records and assets of any fund referred to in this section;

(b) produce and furnish to the person authorised by the Commission in writing any document or record which the person reasonably requests; and

- (c) answer any questions that the person authorised by the Commission in writing, may ask concerning those records or assets.
- (6) The securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organisation shall appoint an approved auditor to audit the financial statements of a fund established under this section.
- (7) The securities exchange, clearing facility or self-regulatory organisation that establishes a fund under this section shall, within one hundred and twenty business days of the end of the financial year of the fund, file with the Commission the report of the approved auditors appointed under subsection (6) together with the financial statements of the fund in such form and containing such information as may be prescribed.
- (8) Monies held in a fund in accordance with this section shall not be made available for payment of the debts or expenses or other obligations of any person other than as prescribed.
- 28. (1) The Commission may, by written order, delegate to a person licensed under this Part, any of the powers conferred on it by this Act regarding the adoption and enforcement of rules for the conduct of their members and the responsibility to regulate their members' compliance with the provisions of those rules and of this Act. Delegation
- (2) The Commission shall publish any order of delegation issued under subsection (1).
- (3) The Commission may withdraw, add or vary any powers delegated under subsection (1) as it deems necessary.
- (4) Despite any delegation under subsection (1), the Commission shall continue to have full authority to regulate the activities of persons licensed under this Part and any of its clients, participants and subscribers.
- 29. (1) A person licensed under this Part may make an application to the Commission in the prescribed form to surrender its licence, accompanied by documents as may be prescribed. Voluntary surrender
- (2) At any time after receiving an application, the Commission may require the applicant to furnish additional information in support of its application.
- (3) If a person licenced under this Part applies to the Commission to surrender its licence, the Commission may accept the surrender, unless the Commission considers it prejudicial to the public interest to do so.

- (4) On receiving an application under subsection (1), the Commission may, without providing an opportunity to be heard, suspend or impose any condition or restriction on the person licensed under this Part that the Commission deems appropriate.

- 30. (1) A person may not establish or maintain, or assist in establishing or maintaining a marketplace or an ancillary facility in [name of member territory] without a licence or without being licensed in accordance with this Act. Offences
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is be liable on summary conviction to-

requirement

PART V

DISTRIBUTIONS OF SECURITIES

47. (1) No person shall trade in a security on the person's own account or on behalf of any other person where the trade would be a distribution of the security unless a prospectus, all other prescribed documents, and the prescribed fee has been filed with the Commission and a receipt evidencing payment of the fee has been issued by the Commission.
- Prospectus required
- (2) A prospectus approved by the Commission shall be valid only for the period of time for distribution as determined under section 58.
48. (1) A person shall not solicit a trade in a security by way of advertisement or any other means in connection with a distribution of a security, unless a receipt has been issued by the Commission under this Act for a prospectus offering the security, and the advertisement –
- Advertising
- (a) identifies the security proposed to be distributed and contains all other prescribed information;
  - (b) states that a receipt has been issued by the Commission; and
  - (c) identifies a person from whom a document containing the information specified in paragraph (a) may be obtained, and a person through whom orders are to be executed.
- (2) A person may solicit an expression of interest from an accredited investor with respect to a proposed distribution if the person –
- (a) notifies the Commission in writing that he intends to do so and identifies the security proposed to be distributed; and
  - (b) notifies the accredited investor that –
    - (i) either the securities are being distributed pursuant to a limited offering or a prospectus

- related to the proposed distribution has been filed with the Commission but the receipt has not been issued;
- (ii) no offer to buy the securities can be accepted and no part of the purchase price can be recovered until the prospectus for the proposed distribution has been approved by the Commission; and
- (iii) such expression of interest shall not be binding on either party.
- 49. (1) An issuer or a licensee acting as agent for the issuer, who receives an order or subscription for a security offered in a distribution, shall send or deliver to a person, a prospectus, or amended prospectus, as the case may be, within 2 business days after the order or subscription is received. Delivery of Prospectus
- (2) An agreement of purchase and sale in relation to an order or subscription referred to in subsection (1) is not binding on a purchaser if the issuer, or the licensee acting as agent for the issuer, receives not later than 2 business days after the day the purchaser received a prospectus or amended prospectus under subsection (1), written notice that the purchaser intends not to be bound by the agreement.
- (3) A person who files a prospectus with the Commission pursuant to section 47 during the distribution period, shall furnish to any licensee a reasonable number of copies of the prospectus upon request and without charge.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, the date of receipt of a prospectus by a person who acts solely as agent of the purchaser with respect to the purchase of a security referred to in subsection (1), is deemed to be the date of receipt by the principal purchaser.
- 50. A prospectus shall contain full and true disclosure in plain language of all material facts concerning the issuer and the securities to be distributed and shall comply with the prescribed requirements. Contents of prospectus
- 51. (1) If there is a material change during the distribution period of a prospectus, the issuer shall file with the Commission an amended prospectus containing the material change or material fact as the case may be, together with the prescribed fee as soon as practicable and in any event within 10 days and every prospectus sent after 10 business days or delivered to any person shall include such amended prospectus. Amendments

- (2) Where an amended prospectus is required to be prepared and filed with the Commission under subsection (1), the distribution of securities under the prospectus shall cease until such time as the Commission has issued a receipt for the amended prospectus.
- (3) An issuer or licensee who sent a prospectus to a person under section 49 shall send to each such person an amended prospectus immediately after it has been filed.
- 52. A prospectus or amended prospectus filed with the Commission shall contain certificates in the prescribed form signed by the prescribed persons. Certificates
- 53. (1) A receipt shall not be issued by the Commission for a prospectus that includes a report, opinion, valuation or statement purporting to be made by an expert unless-
- (a) that expert has given, and has not before delivery of a copy of the prospectus withdrawn, his consent to the inclusion of the statement in the form and context in which it is included in the prospectus; and
  - (b) there appears in the prospectus a statement that the expert has given and has not withdrawn his consent.
- (2) The written consent of an expert under subsection (1) shall be filed in the prescribed manner.
- 54. (1) The requirement to file a prospectus under section 47 does not apply to a distribution - Exemptions
- (a) of securities issued by the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank;
  - (b) of securities issued or guaranteed by a Participating Government;
  - (c) by an issuer where the purchaser is an affiliate of the issuer acting as principal;
  - (d) by an issuer of a security that is distributed to holders of its securities as a dividend or a distribution out of earnings, surplus, capital or other sources;
  - (e) by an issuer of a security to holders of its securities incidental to a reorganisation or winding up or to a distribution of its assets for the purpose of winding up its affairs;
  - (f) by an issuer of a security pursuant to the exercise of a right to acquire a security of its own issue, which right was previously granted by the issuer, if no

- commission or other remuneration is paid or given in respect of the distribution except for administrative or professional services or for services other than the solicitation of investors performed by a licensee;
- (g) by an issuer of a right, transferable or otherwise, granted by it to holders of its securities to purchase additional securities of its own issue, and of securities pursuant to the exercise of such a right if the issuer –
    - i) files with the Commission a notice in a prescribed form that is to be sent to its security holders and the Commission does not inform the issuer in writing within 10 business days of the filing that it objects to the distribution; and
    - ii) sends to its security holders information relating to the securities that is satisfactory to the Commission.
  - (h) by an issuer of a security that is exchanged by or for the account of the issuer with another issuer or the security holders of another issuer on-
    - (i) a statutory amalgamation or arrangement; or
    - (ii) a statutory procedure by which one issuer takes title to the assets of another issuer that loses its existence by operation of law or by which the existing issuers merge into a new issuer;
  - (i) by an issuer of securities of its own issue or that of an affiliate to its senior officers or employees, or senior officers or employees of an affiliate, if –
    - i) in the case of employees, the employees are not induced to purchase the securities by expectation of employment or continued employment with the issuer; and
    - ii) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given in respect of the distribution except for professional services or for services, other than the solicitation of employees, performed by a licensee;
  - (j) where the Commission makes an order that the cost of providing a prospectus outweighs the resulting protection to investors, but in such circumstances the

- Commission may make the order subject to any conditions it considers appropriate;
- (k) by a reporting issuer to accredited investors where—
    - i) the distribution is not accompanied by an advertisement other than an announcement, on prescribed terms, of its completion;
    - ii) no selling or promotional expenses are paid in connection with the trade except for professional services or services performed by an intermediary; and
    - iii) where the accredited investor is an individual other than an individual described in paragraph (b) or (d) of the definition of accredited investor, under section 2(1) the individual has obtained investment advice in respect of the distribution from—
      - (a) a licensee; or
      - (b) any prescribed person who receives no remuneration from the issuer or selling security holder in connection with the distribution;
  - (l) that is a limited offering;
  - (m) where the Commission, being satisfied that to do so would not be prejudicial to the public interest, makes an order exempting the distribution, and such order may be subject to any condition the Commission considers appropriate; or
  - (n) in such other circumstances as may be prescribed.
- (2) An asset-backed security may only be distributed pursuant to an exemption in subsection (1) if a risk disclosure statement in the prescribed form was delivered to each purchaser of the asset-backed security.
- (3) The securities certificate or other proof of ownership of a security acquired under an exemption in subsection (1) shall contain a statement regarding any resale restrictions where prescribed.
- 55. (1) An issuer that is an approved foreign issuer may satisfy the requirements of section 47, 49, 50, 51 and 53 by –
- (a) filing with the Commission-

Exemptions for approved foreign issuers

- (i) a certificate signed by a senior officer of the issuer certifying that it is an approved foreign issuer;
  - (ii) a copy of the receipt or other evidence that the prospectus or offering document to be used in connection with a distribution of securities has become final for the purposes of a distribution of securities in a recognised foreign jurisdiction;
  - (iii) a copy of all documents incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference in the prospectus or offering document;
  - (iv) a copy of all reports or valuations, or other documents filed in the recognised foreign jurisdiction in connection with the distribution;
  - (v) a form of submission to the Commission's jurisdiction and appointment of an agent for service of process of the issuer in such form as the Commission may determine; and
  - (vi) a copy of the prospectus or offering document, and each supplement or amendment thereto, including a certificate of a senior officer of the issuer certifying that the prospectus or offering document constitutes full and true disclosure in plain language of all the material facts relating to the issuer and the securities being distributed; and
- (b) delivering to each purchaser within the Currency Union -
- (i) the offering document or prospectus, and each supplement or amendment to the offering document or prospectus; and
  - (ii) an addendum to the offering document or prospectus containing the prescribed information.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an approved foreign issuer where-

- (a) following the distribution, the number of voting securities of the issuer held, beneficially and of record, directly or indirectly, by the residents of the Currency Union would amount to 20% or more in the aggregate of the total number of voting securities outstanding of the issuer;
- (b) the approved foreign issuer is an investment fund; or
- (c) the documents required to be filed by the issuer under subsection (1) are not in English.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2), where an approved foreign issuer files with the Commission the documents required under subsection (1), the Commission shall issue a receipt for such prospectus or offering document unless the Commission determines it is not in the public interest to do so.
- 56. The first trade in securities previously acquired pursuant to a prescribed exemption, other than a further trade exempted by this Act or the regulations, is deemed to be a distribution, unless the prescribed conditions are met. Resale restrictions
- 57. (1) Subject to subsections, (2), (3) and (4), the Commission shall issue a receipt for a prospectus within a reasonable time after the date of the filing of the prospectus. Receipt for Prospectus
- (2) The Commission shall refuse to issue a receipt for a prospectus if-
- (a) the prospectus or any document filed with the prospectus-
- (i) contains a misrepresentation;
- (ii) contains any statement, promise, estimate or forecast that is misleading, false or deceptive;
- (iii) fails to disclose any information which may be required under this Act or the regulations; or
- (iv) fails to comply with any requirement of this Act or the regulations;
- (b) the distribution in connection with which it is filed is deceptive;
- (c) an extraordinary commission or consideration has been or is intended to be given for promotional purposes or for the acquisition of the security;

- (d) in the opinion of the Commission, the past conduct of-
  - (i) the issuer;
  - (ii) a senior officer of the issuer;
  - (iii) the promoter of the distribution;
  - (iv) a person holding securities sufficient to materially affect the control of the issuer; or
  - (v) any other person who exercises, or is reasonably considered by the Commission as likely to exercise, influence over the issuer's management or policies,suggests that the business or affairs of the issuer are likely to be conducted in a manner that is not honest, or financially responsible, or that may be unfair to holders of its securities;
- (e) the proceeds that the issuer will receive from the distribution, together with its other resources, are not sufficient to accomplish the purpose of the distribution stated in the prospectus;
- (f) a recognised expert who has prepared or certified a part of the prospectus or report used in connection with it, or who has filed a consent with the Commission is not accepted by the Commission;
- (g) the issuer is in default in filing or delivering any document to the Commission required under this Act or under any other enactment by or under which it is incorporated or organised;
- (h) a broker-dealer or investment adviser named in the prospectus is not licenced as such under this Act or authorised to perform equivalent functions under the laws of a recognised foreign jurisdiction;
- (i) where a minimum amount of funds is required by an issuer, the prospectus does not indicate that the distribution will cease if the minimum amount of funds is not subscribed within ninety business days of the commencement of the distribution; or
- (j) the Commission considers that the distribution would be prejudicial to the public interest.

- (3) Where the Commission refuses to issue a receipt for a prospectus, the Commission shall provide the issuer with notice in writing of the reasons for the refusal and the issuer may appeal that decision to the court in accordance with section 134.
- (4) The Commission may, in connection with the issue of a receipt for a prospectus, impose any condition that, in the opinion of the Commission is necessary for the protection of investors including one of the following conditions-
  - (a) outstanding securities of the issuer be held in escrow upon such terms as the Commission may specify;
  - (b) the proceeds of a distribution which are payable to the issuer be held in trust until such amounts, as may be specified by the Commission, are to be released to the issuer;

and no sales pursuant to the distribution may be completed before such time as may be specified by the Commission.

- 58. (1) For the purposes of this Part, a distribution commences on the date that the receipt for the prospectus is issued. Commencement and cessation of distribution
- (2) Where in the first 90 business days following the commencement of a distribution, 25% or less of the securities proposed to be distributed and sold under the prospectus are actually sold and paid for, the distribution shall cease and the funds shall be returned to subscribers until such time as a new prospectus is filed and a receipt therefor issued by the Commission.
- (3) Where the prospectus states that a minimum amount of funds is required to be raised by an issuer, and such minimum amount of funds is not raised by the issuer in the first 90 business days following the commencement of the distribution, the distribution shall cease and the funds shall be returned to subscribers until such time as a new prospectus is filed and a receipt thereof issued by the Commission.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a distribution shall not continue longer than one year and 20 business days from the commencement date in subsection (1).
- (5) The Commission may determine that the period specified in subsection (4) be reduced to not less than 6 months.
- 59. A person who distributes a security, other than a security which is issued by an investment fund- Post distribution statement

- (a) under a prospectus which has been filed with the Commission and receipt obtained under this Act; or
- (b) pursuant to an exemption from the requirement to file a prospectus with the Commission, shall within ten business days of the completion of the distribution, file a post distribution statement in respect of the securities distributed with the Commission in such a form as the Commission may determine.

- 60. If a distribution is carried out other than in compliance with this Part, the issuer and every person who is knowingly a party to the distribution commits an offence and is liable to a fine of $10,000 for every day, or part of a day, from the date of the first solicitation in connection with the distribution until a receipt has been issued for a prospectus by the Commission and shall be further liable-
- Offence
- (a) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $300,000 or to imprisonment for six months, or to both;
  - (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding $750,000 or to imprisonment for one year or to both.

PART VI

CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS OF REPORTING ISSUERS

- 61. (1) A reporting issuer shall disclose to the public all material facts and any other prescribed information about the issuer. Disclosure to the public
- (2) The information disclosed to the public by a reporting issuer shall –
- (a) include all information required to be disclosed;
  - (b) not contain any misrepresentation; and
  - (c) present a balanced view of the issuer’s activities.
- (3) The Commission may prescribe the method to be used by the reporting issuer to disclose information to the public.
- 62. A reporting issuer shall treat all its security holders in a fair and equitable manner. Fair treatment of security holders
- 63. Every director and officer of a reporting issuer, in exercising their powers and discharging their duties shall – Duties of directors and officers

- (a) act honestly and in good faith for the best interest of the issuer; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.
- 64. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a material change occurs in the affairs of a reporting issuer, the reporting issuer shall –
- Timely disclosure of material changes
- (a) immediately, and in any event within one business day of the material change, publish a notice that discloses the nature and substance of the change in one newspaper of general circulation in each member territory or as otherwise prescribed and such notice is to be authorised by a director of the reporting issuer and filed with the Commission; and
- (b) within seven business days of the material change, file with the Commission, a report in the prescribed form, disclosing the nature and substance of the material change, the contents of which shall be certified by a senior officer of the reporting issuer.
- (2) If the reporting issuer is of the opinion that the immediate disclosure required by subsection (1) would be unduly detrimental to its interests, it shall immediately give the Commission notice in writing of the information relating to the reporting issuer, including information on any significant new developments in the issuer's business or affairs which is not public knowledge and the reasons that the issuer is of the opinion that public disclosure should be withheld.
- (3) Where the Commission is in receipt of a notice under subsection (2), the Commission may, after giving the reporting issuer an opportunity to be heard –
- (a) require disclosure to the public of the material change in accordance with subsection (1), if the Commission is of the opinion that the disclosure would not be unduly detrimental to the interests of the reporting issuer; or
- (b) permit non-disclosure of the material change by the reporting issuer provided non-disclosure does not continue beyond the time set out in subsection (5).
- (4) A decision of the Commission under subsection (3) is final and no appeal from such a decision shall be available.

- (5) Notwithstanding any permitted non-disclosure under subsection (3) (b), the reporting issuer shall disclose to the Commission such material change no later than the thirteenth business day following the date on which the reporting issuer would have been required to issue a press release in respect of the material change under subsection (1).
- (6) The reporting issuer shall, notwithstanding a notice has been given to the Commission under subsection (2), promptly disclose the material change in the manner referred to in subsection (1) upon the reporting issuer becoming aware or having reasonable grounds to believe that persons are purchasing or selling securities of the issuer with knowledge of the undisclosed material change.
- (7) The Commission or a securities exchange licensed under this Act may make a cease trading order in the trading of securities of a reporting issuer for a period of time, to allow for the disclosure of a material change if the Commission is of the opinion that such cease trade order is appropriate to ensure orderly trading in the securities.
- 65. Every reporting issuer shall appoint an approved auditor who shall conduct an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards of the annual financial statements of the issuer and shall provide the Commission with the prescribed reports on the financial affairs of the issuer. Auditors and audits
- 66. (1) Every reporting issuer shall, within ninety business days after the end of the issuer's financial year or such other prescribed period, file with the Commission annual audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Filing of annual audited financial statements
- (2) Every financial statement referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a report of the auditor of the reporting issuer.
- (3) The Commission may, where the report of the auditor required by subsection (2) is qualified in any respect, take any action that it deems necessary until the matters giving rise to the qualified audit report are resolved.
- (4) Where in the course of performing the duty required by subsection (2), the auditor determines that a matter that could give rise to a qualification in the audit report on the financial statements is present, the auditor shall-
- (a) immediately provide notice to the Commission in the prescribed form; and

- (b) promptly deliver a copy of the notice under paragraph (a) to the reporting issuer.
- 67. Every reporting issuer shall file with the Commission interim financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles within 30 business days or such other prescribed period after the end of the financial period to which it relates. Interim financial statements
- 68. Every reporting issuer shall, within the prescribed period, file with the Commission – Annual reports
- (a) a copy of its annual report containing such information as the Commission may specify; and
- (b) all reports or other information and documents as the Commission may specify.
- 69. (1) As soon as practicable after filing with the Commission, a reporting issuer shall send to each security holder, at the address provided to the reporting issuer as the preferred delivery address of the security holder or at the last address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the reporting issuer and at no cost to the security holder, the following documents- Delivery of continuous disclosure documents to security holders
- (a) the annual financial statements and the report of the auditor;
- (b) the interim financial statements;
- (c) the annual report; and
- (d) any other prescribed report or document.
- (2) The obligation to send documents to security holders under subsection (1) does not apply –
- (a) in relation to documents published as prescribed; or
- (b) if a security holder has informed the reporting issuer that the security holder does not wish to receive the documents.
- 70. Where a reporting issuer fails to file a report or statement required to be filed under this Part within ninety business days of the end of its financial year, it is liable to a penalty of fifty thousand dollars for every day of the default except when an extension to the period has been granted by the Commission pursuant to section 160. Failure to file
- 71. (1) For the purpose of this section “solicit” and “solicitation” include- Proxies and proxy solicitation

- (a) a request for a proxy, whether or not accompanied by or included in a form of proxy;
  - (b) a request to execute or not to execute a form of proxy or to revoke a proxy;
  - (c) the sending of a form of proxy or other communications to a security holder under circumstances reasonably calculated to result in the procurement, withholding or revocation of a proxy; and
  - (d) the sending of a form of proxy to a security holder under subsection (2), but does not include –
    - (i) the sending of a form of proxy in response to an unsolicited request made by or on behalf of a security holder;
    - (ii) the performance of administrative acts or professional services on behalf of a person soliciting a proxy;
    - (iii) the sending by a registrant of documents to a beneficial owner;
    - (iv) the solicitation by a person in respect of securities of which the person is the beneficial owner; or
    - (v) other prescribed activities.
- (2) A reporting issuer shall, concurrently with the giving of notice of a meeting of its security holders, send a prescribed form of proxy and any other prescribed document to each holder of voting securities who is entitled to receive notice of the meeting at the preferred delivery address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the reporting issuer.
- (3) A person shall not solicit proxies under subsection (1) unless each security holder whose proxy is solicited is sent all prescribed documents concurrently with the solicitation.
- (4) A person soliciting proxies shall, concurrently with sending the proxy document required in subsection (2), file with the Commission a copy of each document sent to security holders.
- (5) The Commission may -
- (a) require a reporting issuer to file with the Commission, within such time limit as may be prescribed, draft copies of any

- documents that the issuer intends to send to security holders under this section prior to any sending; and
- (b) review any proxy documents any other communications to security holders and require modifications to the documents or delay any mailing or security holder meeting as a result of its review.
- 72. (1) A reporting issuer that is an approved foreign issuer is exempt from the requirements of this Part, if the reporting issuer -
- Exemptions for certain foreign issuers
- (a) complies in all respects with the foreign disclosure requirements of its recognised foreign jurisdiction regarding-
- (i) the disclosure of material changes on a timely basis;
- (ii) the preparation, filing and delivery of annual audited financial statements; and
- (iii) the preparation, filing and delivery of interim financial statements;
- (b) files with the Commission all such documents that it files with the foreign regulatory authority in the recognised foreign jurisdiction in respect of the items described under paragraph (a); and
- (c) delivers to each security holder resident in the Currency Union, at the preferred delivery address of the reporting issuer and at no cost to the security holder, the documents that such security holder would be entitled to receive under the laws governing securities in the recognised foreign jurisdiction if such security holder were resident in that foreign jurisdiction.
- (2) Subsection (1) is not applicable to an approved foreign issuer if, as at the end of the last financial year of the approved foreign issuer, the number of voting securities of the issuer held beneficially and of record, directly or indirectly, by residents in the Currency Union is 20% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer on such date or such other ownership threshold as may be prescribed.
- (3) A reporting issuer that is an approved foreign issuer shall certify annually to the Commission in writing, concurrently with the filing of its annual financial statements, that it is an approved foreign issuer and is permitted to rely on the exemption provided by this section.

- 73. (1) When a reporting issuer ceases to be a public company, it shall make an application to the Commission to cease to be a reporting issuer. Ceasing to be a reporting issuer
- (2) The Commission may on its own motion or on an application by a reporting issuer, make an order declaring, subject to such conditions as it considers appropriate, that the issuer is no longer a reporting issuer.
- 74. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a reporting issuer who— Offences
- (a) contravenes this Part; or
- (b) makes a misrepresentation in any document required to be filed with the Commission or delivered to security holders under this Part,
- commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding $1,000,000 or to imprisonment for three years or to both.
- (2) Where a reporting issuer is convicted of an offence under subsection (1), each senior officer of the reporting issuer, who knowingly or recklessly authorised, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is also liable on conviction on indictment for such offence to a fine not exceeding $500,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the defence available to a senior officer under section 137 is also available to a senior officer in respect of this section.
- (4) Where a senior officer is convicted of an offence under subsection (2), the Commission may order, that the individual be prohibited from being a senior officer of a reporting issuer or licensee for a period not exceeding five years, if it is in the public interest, and may do so in addition to any other order that the Commission may make.
- (5) An auditor of a reporting issuer that knowingly makes or provides a false or misleading audit report in respect of the financial statements of a reporting issuer commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $500,000.
- (6) Where an auditor is convicted of an offence under subsection (5), the Commission may order that the auditor be prohibited from being an approved auditor for a period not exceeding five years if it is in the public interest and may do so in addition to any other order that the Commission may make.

PART VII

GOVERNANCE OF REPORTING ISSUERS

75. A reporting issuer shall comply with all prescribed requirements regarding the governance of reporting issuers, including requirements relating to- Compliance with prescribed requirements
- (a) the composition of its board of directors and qualifications for membership on the board, including matters respecting the independence of members;
  - (b) the establishment of specified types of committees of the board of directors, the mandate, functioning and responsibilities of each committee, the composition of each committee and the qualifications for membership on the committee, including matters respecting the independence of members;
  - (c) the establishment and enforcement of a code of business conduct and ethics applicable to its directors, officers and employees and applicable to persons or companies that are in a special relationship with the reporting issuer, including the minimum requirements for such a code; and
  - (d) procedures to regulate conflicts of interest between the interests of the reporting issuer and those of a director or officer of the reporting issuer.

PART VIII

TAKEOVER BIDS

76. A person shall not make a takeover bid or issuer bid for a reporting issuer except in accordance with the prescribed requirements. Takeover bids

PART IX

DISCLOSURE OF SHAREHOLDINGS OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND SIGNIFICANT SECURITY HOLDERS

77. (1) A person who is connected to a reporting issuer as a result of section 2(2)(a)(i),(ii) or (iii) shall, within five working days of the day that he becomes connected to the reporting issuer, file a report in such form as the Commission may determine with the Commission disclosing any direct or indirect beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of the reporting issuer by him.
- (2) A person—
- (i) who is connected to a reporting issuer as a result of section 2(2)(a)(i), (ii) or (iii); and
  - (ii) whose direct or indirect beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of the reporting issuer by him changes,
- shall within five business days from the day on which the change takes place, file in such form as the Commission may determine, a report of direct or indirect beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of the reporting issuer by him as of the day on which the change took place.
- (3) No person to whom this section applies shall transfer or cause to be transferred any securities of the reporting issuer to which he is connected into the name of an agent, nominee or custodian, other than a clearing facility, without filing with the Commission a report in such form as the Commission may determine of such transfer except for a transfer for the purpose of giving collateral for a genuine debt.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person is not required to file a report under this section where the person does not beneficially own, or exercise control or direction over, any securities of the reporting issuer.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person has beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of a reporting issuer including—
- (a) securities that are convertible or exchangeable for securities of a reporting issuer, whether or not on condition; or
  - (b) rights to acquire or to subscribe for, or otherwise receive securities of a reporting issuer,
- whether or not such securities are securities issued by the reporting issuer.

Reports by certain connected persons

- (6) A person who files a report with the Commission under this section shall deliver a copy of the report that he has filed with the Commission under this section to the reporting issuer.
- 78. (1) A reporting issuer shall keep, in the form and manner specified by the Commission, a register of senior officers' and significant security holders' interests. Register of interest of directors and substantial shareholders
- (2) The register shall be held at the reporting issuer's registered office and shall, during usual office hours, be open to inspection by members of the public free of charge .
- (3) The register shall be produced at the commencement of the reporting issuer's annual general meeting and be kept open and available throughout the meeting to any person attending.
- 79. (1) Where a reporting issuer is notified by senior officer or significant security holder of any matter relating to securities of which the reporting issuer is required to give notice under this Part, or enters in its register any matter relating to securities required to be entered under this Part, the reporting issuer shall inform the securities exchange on which the securities of the reporting issuer are listed, and the Commission, before the end of the day following the day of the notification or entry, as the case may be. Notification to securities exchange and Commission
- (2) The securities exchange or the Commission shall publish, in such manner as it may determine, any information it receives under this section.
- 80. A person who contravenes any provision of this Part commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $600,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, and in the case of a continuing offence, to a fine not exceeding 10% of the maximum fine for each day that the offence continues. Offences

PART X

UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

- 81. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Companies Act, the ownership of securities, issued by reporting issuers may subject to the prescribed provisions, be evidenced and transferred without a written instrument. Transfer of uncertificated securities

PART XI*MARKET MISCONDUCT

- 82. (1) A person shall not take part in or carry out, whether directly or indirectly and whether within the Currency Union or elsewhere, a transaction or series of transactions that has or is likely to have the effect of -
- Market Manipulation
- (a) creating an artificial price for trading in securities on a marketplace licensed under this Act; or
  - (b) maintaining a price for trading in securities on a marketplace licensed under this Act at a level that is artificial, whether or not it was previously artificial.
- 83. (1) A person shall not do, or omit to do, an act, whether in or from within the Currency Union or elsewhere, if that act or omission has or is likely to have the effect of creating, or causing the creation of, a false or misleading appearance -
- False trading and market rigging - creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading etc.
- (a) of active trading in securities on a marketplace licensed under this Act; or
  - (b) with respect to the marketplace for, or the price for trading in securities on marketplace licensed under this Act.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1), a person is deemed to have created a false or misleading appearance of active trading in particular securities on a licensed marketplace if the person-
- (a) enters into, or carries out, either directly or indirectly, any transaction of purchase or sale of any of those securities that does not involve any change in the beneficial ownership of the securities;
  - (b) makes an offer to sell any of those securities at a specified price and has made or proposes to make, or knows, that an associate of the person has made or proposes to make, an offer to purchase the same number, or substantially the same number, of those securities at a price that is substantially the same as the price specified in the offer to sell; or
  - (c) makes an offer to purchase any of those securities at a specified price and has made or proposes to make, an offer to sell the same number, or substantially the same number, of those securities at a price that is substantially the same as the price specified in the offer to purchase.

- (3) The circumstances in which a person creates a false or misleading appearance of active trading in particular securities on a securities exchange are not limited to the circumstances set out in subsection (2).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), a purchase or sale of securities does not involve a change in the beneficial ownership if-
- (a) a person who had an interest in the securities before the purchase or sale; or
  - (b) an associate of a person under paragraph (a) has an interest in the securities after the purchase or sale.
- (5) The reference in paragraph (2)(a) to a transaction of purchase or sale of securities includes-
- (a) a reference to the making of an offer to purchase or sell securities; and
  - (b) a reference to the making of an invitation, however expressed, that expressly or impliedly invites a person to offer to buy or sell securities.
- 84. (1) A person shall not, whether in or from within the Currency Union or elsewhere, enter into, or engage in, a fictitious or artificial transaction or device if that transaction or device results in-
- (a) the price for trading in securities on a licensed marketplace being maintained, inflated or depressed; or
  - (b) fluctuations in the price for trading in securities on a licensed marketplace.
- (2) In determining whether a transaction is fictitious or artificial for the purposes of subsection (1), the fact that the transaction is, or was at any time, intended by the parties who entered into it to have effect according to its terms is not conclusive.
- 85. (1) No person shall engage in conduct, in or from within the Currency Union, in relation to securities business or a security that is misleading or deceptive or is likely to mislead or deceive.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to engaging in conduct in relation to a security includes any of the following-

False trading and market rigging-artificially maintaining etc. trading price

Misleading or deceptive conduct

- (a) trading in a security;
  - (b) issuing a security
  - (c) publishing a notice in relation to a security;
  - (d) making, or making an evaluation of, an offer under a take-over bid or a recommendation relating to such an offer; or
  - (e) carrying on negotiations, or making arrangements, or doing any other act, preparatory to, or in any way related to, an activity covered by any of paragraphs (b) to (d).
- 86. No person shall, in purported compliance with any requirement imposed by or under securities laws, knowingly or recklessly provide the Commission or the public with information that-
- (a) is false;
  - (b) is misleading in a material particular; or
  - (c) fails to state a fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make the statement not misleading.
- 87. No person shall, whether in or from within the Currency Union or elsewhere, circulate or disseminate, or be involved in the circulation or dissemination of any statement or information to the effect that the price for the trading in securities on a licensed marketplace will, or is likely to rise or fall or be maintained, because of a transaction, or other act or thing done, in relation to those securities, if -
- (a) the transaction or thing done, constitutes or would constitute a contravention of section 82, 83, 84 or 85; and
  - (b) the person, or an associate of the person-
    - (i) has entered into such a transaction or done such an act or thing; or
    - (ii) has received, or may receive, directly or indirectly, a consideration or benefit for circulating or disseminating or authorising the circulation or dissemination of, the statement or information.
- 88. No person shall, whether in the Currency Union or elsewhere, make a statement, or disseminate information, if-

Misleading the Commission

Dissemination of information about illegal transactions

False or misleading statements

- (a) the statement or information is false in a material particular or is materially misleading;
  - (b) the statement or information is likely-
    - (i) to induce persons in the Currency Union to trade securities; or
    - (ii) to have the effect of increasing, reducing, maintaining or stabilising the price for trading in securities on a licensed marketplace; and
  - (c) when the person makes the statement, or disseminates the information-
    - (i) the person does not care whether the statement or information is true or false; or
    - (ii) the person knows, or ought reasonably to have known, that the statement or information is false in a material particular or is materially misleading.
- 89. No person shall, in or from within the Currency Union, induce another person to trade in securities by-
- Inducing persons to deal
- (a) making or publishing a statement, promise or forecast if the person knows, or is reckless as to whether, the statement is misleading, false or deceptive;
  - (b) a dishonest concealment of material information; or
  - (c) recording or storing information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or materially misleading if-
    - (i) the information is recorded or stored in, or by means of, a mechanical, electronic or other device; and

- (4) After receiving a notice under subsection (3), a person shall, within a reasonable period as specified in the notice, provide to the Commission the information or documents described in the notice that are in the custody, possession or control of the person.
- (5) The Commission may enter, during reasonable hours, the business premises of a person under inspection for the purposes of –
- (a) inspecting and copying information or documents stored in any form on such premises; or
- (b) seizing and taking possession of any information or documents.
- (6) The Commission may require a person under inspection to give an explanation of, or further particulars regarding, any information or document produced under subsection (4) or obtained under subsection (5).
- (7) If a person acting on behalf of the Commission, enters premises under subsection (5), the person shall present proof of his or her authority to do so.
- (8) Any information or document seized under subsection (5) shall be returned to the person from whom, or premises from which, it was taken as soon as possible.
- 104. (1) The Commission may require a regulated person to provide the Commission with a report, in such form as may be specified in the notice, by the person's approved auditor, or by an accountant or other person with relevant professional skill, on, or on any aspect of, any matter about which the Commission has required or could require the regulated person to provide information under securities laws. Power to require reports
- (2) The report shall be prepared at the expense of the regulated person.

- (3) No person shall be appointed to make a report required under this section unless the Commission gives prior approval to the appointment of the person.
- (4) The person appointed to make the report under this section shall immediately give written notice to the Commission of—
- (a) every fact or matter of which that person becomes aware which indicates that any of the minimum criteria is not or has not been fulfilled, or may not be or may not have been fulfilled, in respect of the regulated person; and
  - (b) Every fact or matter of which that person that becomes aware which indicates that the matters are likely to be of material significance for the exercise, in relation to such person, of the Commission's functions under this Act.
- 105. (1) The Commission may inspect the business of a market participant, other than a regulated person, for the purposes of—
- Compliance inspection of other market participants
- (a) determining if the person is complying with;
    - (i) securities laws;
    - (ii) or any other prescribed statute that is administered by the Commission; or
  - (b) assisting in the administration of the securities legislation of another jurisdiction.
- (2) The Commission may in writing appoint another person to conduct the inspection under subsection (1).
- (3) The Commission may, by notice in writing, require a person under inspection to produce information or documents, or a class of information or documents that reasonably relates to the inspection.
- (4) After receiving a notice under subsection (3), a person shall, within a reasonable period as specified in the notice, provide to the Commission the information or document that is described in the notice and that is in the custody, possession or control of the person.
- 106. (1) The Commission may, for the purposes of assisting in the performance of any of its functions or the exercise of any of its powers under Securities laws, require —
- Provision of information relating to Transactions
- a) a person registered as the holder of securities in a register, kept by or on behalf of an issuer;
  - b) a person that the Commission has reasonable cause to believe holds any securities;

- c) a person that the Commission has reasonable cause to believe has acquired or disposed of any securities, whether directly or through a nominee, trustee or agent, and whether as beneficial owner, nominee, trustee, agent or otherwise; or
- d) a regulated person through which the Commission has reasonable cause to believe any securities have been acquired, disposed of, dealt with or traded, to furnish to the Commission any of the information specified in subsection (2) within the time and in the form specified.

- (2) The information for the purposes of subsection (1) is–
  - a) particulars that are reasonably capable of establishing the identity of the person on whose behalf, or by, from, to or through whom the securities in question are held, or have been acquired, disposed of, dealt with or traded (as the case may be);
  - b) the instructions given to or by the person referred to in paragraph (a) or any officer, employee or agent of such person, in relation to the holding, acquisition, disposal, dealing, or trading of or in respect of the securities.
  - c) the particulars of the securities and the consideration given or received; and
  - d) any other information in the possession of the person as the Commission may specify.

- 107. (1) After the conclusion of an inspection of a regulated person or a market participant, the Commission may require that a report be prepared setting out the findings of that inspection.
- (2) The Commission shall consider and make recommendations on any information or report prepared under this Part.
- (3) The Commission may charge a fee as prescribed for an inspection conducted under this Part
- (4) Upon application, the Commission may grant an exemption regarding the payment of costs where the Commission considers it appropriate.

Inspection reports and costs

- 108. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may, upon the request of a domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority, permit the regulatory authority to take part in a

Participation of other regulatory authorities in compliance inspection undertaken by the Commission under this Part.

inspections under this division

- (2) The Commission shall not permit a domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority to take part in a compliance inspection under subsection (1), unless it is of the opinion that the participation of the regulatory authority is reasonably required –
- (a) for the effective supervision of a regulated person; or
  - (b) for the purposes of the regulatory functions of the regulatory authority.
- (3) In deciding whether to permit a domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority to take part in a compliance inspection under subsection (1), the Commission may take into account, whether the regulatory authority is subject to adequate legal restrictions on further disclosure, whether the authority is legally empowered to take part in a compliance inspection of that regard, and, in particular, whether it is likely, without the written permission of the Commission –
- (a) to disclose information obtained or documents examined or obtained during the compliance inspection to any person other than an officer or employee of the authority engaged in supervision; or
  - (b) to take any action on information obtained or documents examined or obtained during the compliance inspection.

109. A person who without reasonable excuse alters, suppresses, conceals, destroys or refuses to produce any document which has been required to be produced in accordance with securities laws or any regulation thereunder, or which he is liable to be so required to produce, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $500,000 and to imprisonment for five years.

Restrictions on withholding or concealing

110. (1) No person shall be required to disclose information or to produce a document which the person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or to produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege in court proceedings.

Protection of persons providing information

- (2) For the purposes of this section, any information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the legal adviser-
- (a) by, or by a representative of the person who is a client of the legal adviser in connection with obtaining legal advice from that adviser;

- (b) by, or by a representative of, a person seeking legal advice from the adviser; or
  - (c) by any person in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings, and for the purpose of those proceedings.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, no information or other matter shall be treated as coming to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

DIVISION 2
ASSISTANCE TO DOMESTIC REGULATORY AUTHORITIES

- 111. (1) At the request of a domestic regulatory authority, the Commission may, where it considers it appropriate, exercise its powers under securities laws for the purpose of assisting the performance by the domestic regulatory authority of its regulatory functions. Assistance to Domestic Regulatory Authorities
- (2) Notwithstanding Article 23 of the Agreement, the Commission may provide information that it has acquired in the course of its duties or in the exercise of its functions under securities laws to any other domestic regulatory authority where the Commission considers such information may be relevant to the functions of such other domestic regulatory authority or as a necessary part of a framework for consolidated supervision, oversight or regulation of the financial services sector.

ASSISTANCE TO FOREIGN REGULATORY AUTHORITIES

- 112. (1) In determining whether to grant assistance referred to in section 113 the Commission may consider the following factors- Conditions for provision of assistance
- (a) whether the assistance is intended to enable the foreign regulatory authority, or any designated third party, to carry out the supervision, investigation or enforcement for which the request relates;

- (b) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given a written undertaking that any document obtained pursuant to its request shall not be used for any other purpose not approved by the Commission;
    - (c) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given a written undertaking not to disclose to a third party any document received pursuant to the request without the approval of the Commission and in accordance with any conditions imposed by the Commission; and
    - (d) whether the rendering of assistance would not be contrary to the public interest of the Currency Union, the interest of the investing public, or the interest of the general public.
  - (2) In deciding whether to grant a request for assistance referred to in section 113 from a foreign regulatory authority, the Commission may also have regard to the following-
    - (a) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to comply with a future request by the Commission to the foreign regulatory authority for similar assistance; and
    - (b) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to contribute towards the costs of providing the assistance that the foreign regulatory authority has requested.
  - (3) Where a regulatory authority fails to comply with a requirement of the Commission in subsection (1) or (2), the Commission may refuse to provide the assistance sought.
- 113. (1) Notwithstanding Article 23 of the Agreement, the provisions of any written law or any rule of law, the Commission may, in relation to a request for assistance by a foreign regulatory authority -
  - (a) transmit to the foreign regulatory authority any document in the possession of the Commission that is requested by the authority;
  - (b) order any person to furnish to the Commission any document that is requested by the foreign regulatory

- authority, that the Commission may then transmit to that authority;
- (c) order any person to give the Commission assistance in connection with a request made by a foreign regulatory authority; or
  - (d) order any person to make an oral statement to the Commission on any information requested by the foreign regulatory authority, record such statement, and transmit the recorded statement to the authority.
- (2) A person shall not be required to disclose information or to produce a document which the person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or to produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege in court proceedings.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, any information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the legal adviser-
- (a) by, or by a representative of that person who is a client of the legal adviser in connection with obtaining legal advice from that adviser;
  - (b) by, or by a representative of, a person seeking legal advice from the adviser; or
  - (c) by any person in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings and for the purpose of those proceedings.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, no information or other matter shall be treated as coming to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances, if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.
- (5) Where the person in possession of any document required to be produced under this Part, claims a lien on the document-
- (a) the requirements to produce the document shall not be affected by the lien;
  - (b) no fees shall be payable for or in respect of the production; and
  - (c) the production shall be without prejudice to the lien.
- 114. (1) The Commission may, in exercise of its co-operative functions, enter into memoranda of understanding with foreign regulatory authorities for-
- Authority to enter into Memoranda of Understanding

- (a) the purposes of assisting a foreign regulatory authority, or any designated third party, to carry out its supervision, investigation or enforcement functions,
- (b) the purposes of assisting in consolidated supervision with such foreign regulatory authority or any designated third party; or
- (c) such other purposes as the Commission may deem fit.
- (2) The Commission shall notify the Minister of Finance of each memorandum of understanding and promptly publish the memorandum of understanding in the Gazette.
- 115. (1) Any person who-
- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with an order under this Part;
- (b) in purported compliance with an order under this Part, furnishes to the Commission any document known to the person to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (c) in purported compliance with an order under this Part, makes a statement to the Commission that is false or misleading in a material particular,
- commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $500,000.
- (2) If the offence is a continuing offence, the individual or company is liable to a further fine not exceeding $50,000 for every day that the offence continues after conviction.
- Offences under this division

DIVISION 4

ENFORCEMENT

- 116. (1) In addition to all other powers given to the Commission under securities laws, the Commission may, by notice in writing, give a direction where it appears to the Commission that-
- (a) it is desirable for the protection of investors;
- (b) a person is contravening, has contravened or is about to contravene any provision of or requirement under the securities laws;
- (c) a person has failed to comply with any provision of or requirement under the securities laws; or
- Power of the Commission to issue directions

- (d) a person, in purported compliance with any provision or requirement, has furnished the Commission with information that is false, inaccurate or misleading.
- (2) A direction under this section may contain one or more of the following prohibitions or requirements-
- (a) to require a person to cease and desist from the contravention;
  - (b) to require a person to comply with the prohibitions or requirements;
  - (c) to prohibit a person from entering into transactions of a class or description specified in the notice or prohibit entering into them otherwise than in the specified circumstances or to the extent specified;
  - (d) to prohibit a person from soliciting business from a person of a class or description specified or from persons other than persons of such a class or description;
  - (e) to prohibit a person from carrying on business in a specified manner or otherwise than in a specified manner;
  - (f) as regards any assets, whether in the Currency Union or elsewhere and whether they are the assets of the person or not, -
    - (i) to prohibit the person from disposing of such assets or prohibit the person from dealing with them in a manner specified in the notice: or
    - (ii) to require a person to deal with such assets in, and only in, a manner specified in the notice;
  - (g) to require a person to maintain in the Currency Union, assets of such value as appears to the Commission to be desirable with a view to ensuring that the person will be able to meet its liabilities in respect of its securities business; or
  - (h) to require a person to transfer control of assets of a specified class or description to a trustee approved by the Commission.
- (3) A direction under this section shall be for such specified period as the Commission considers necessary (which may be extended as deemed necessary), except that a direction issued by the Commission containing any prohibition or requirement under paragraph (f), (g) or (h) of subsection (2) shall be for a period not exceeding thirty days.

- (4) A person who fails to comply with a direction of the Commission commits an offence.
- (5) The Commission may, by written notice either on its own motion or on the application of a licensee on whom a prohibition or requirement has been imposed under this section, rescind or vary the prohibition or requirement if it appears to the Commission that it is no longer necessary for the prohibition or requirement to take effect or continue in force or, as the case may, that it should take effect or continue in force in different form.

- 117. (1) If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, upon a settlement with the person or after a hearing-
- Orders in the public interest
- (a) order a person to comply with—
    - (i) securities laws or a Commission decision; or
    - (ii) the regulatory instrument or a decision of a person licensed under Part II;

- (2) The licence of a representative or principal is deemed suspended or revoked on the date of notification of the suspension or revocation of the licence of the licensee to whom the licensed representative or principal is accredited.
- (3) The suspension or revocation of a licence does not operate so as to-

- (a) avoid or affect any agreement, transaction or arrangement relating to a dealing in securities entered into by the person whose licence has been suspended or revoked, whether the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before or after the suspension or revocation of the licence, except that the licensee shall not be allowed to retain any benefits charged or payable thereto; or
  - (b) affect any right, obligation, or liability arising under any such agreement, transaction or arrangement.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Commission may make an order under subsection (1) (a) to (g) against a person, without a hearing, if the person-
  - (a) has been convicted in any jurisdiction of a criminal offence arising from a transaction, business or course of conduct related to securities;
  - (b) has been found by a court to have contravened the securities laws of any jurisdiction; or
  - (c) has been found by a foreign regulatory authority to have contravened the securities laws of that jurisdiction.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if the Commission considers it necessary and in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, without providing an opportunity to be heard, make an order under subsection (1), other than an order under subsection (1), (h), (i) or (j), that is effective for not more than 15 days.
- (6) If the Commission considers it necessary and in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, without providing an opportunity to be heard, extend an order made under subsection (5) until the Commission makes a final decision after-
  - (a) a hearing under subsection (1) is held; or
  - (b) an opportunity to be heard under subsection (1) is provided.
- (7) Where the Commission makes an order under this section, the Commission shall send the order to each person named in the order.
- (8) Where the Commission sends an order made under subsection (5) or (6), the Commission must send a notice of hearing, or a notice of opportunity to be heard, with the order.
- (9) A person appointed under subsection(1)(l) or (m) is appointed at the expense of the relevant regulated person and any expenses reasonably incurred by the Commission by virtue of the appointment is an amount due to the Commission payable by the regulated person.

- (10) A person appointed under subsection (1)(m) has all the powers necessary, to the exclusion of any other person other than a liquidator or receiver, to administer the affairs of the relevant regulated person in the best interest of the clients, investors and creditors of the regulated person.
- (11) The powers referred to in subsection (10) include the power to terminate the business of the regulated person if it is judged to be insolvent.
- (12) A person appointed in respect of a regulated person under subsection (1) (l) or (m) shall-
- (a) supply the Commission with such information in respect of the regulated person, when requested to do so by the Commission;
  - (b) within three months of the person's appointment, or within such other period as the Commission may specify, prepare and supply to the Commission a report on the affairs of the regulated person and where appropriate make recommendations in respect of the regulated person; and
  - (c) if the person's appointment is not terminated after supplying the report referred to in paragraph (b), subsequently supply to the Commission such other information, reports and recommendations as the Commission shall require.
- (13) If a person appointed under subsection (1) (l) or (m) –
- (a) fails to comply with an obligation under subsection (12); or
  - (b) in the Commission's opinion, is not carrying out the person's obligations in respect of the relevant regulated person satisfactorily,
- the Commission, may revoke the appointment and appoint some other person in the person's place, and may assess the charges payable to such appointed person up to the date of the revocation of the appointment, and any expenses reasonably incurred by the Commission by virtue of the revocation and reappointment is an amount due to the Commission payable by the appointed person.
- (14) On receipt of any information or report pursuant to subsection (12) in respect of a regulated person, the Commission may-

- (a) require the regulated person to reorganise its affairs in a manner specified by the Commission; or
- (b) apply to the Court for an order to wind up, dissolve, liquidate or otherwise terminate, as appropriate, the regulated person upon such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit;
- (c) take such action in respect of the appointment or continued appointment of the person appointed under subsection (1) (l) or (m) as the Commission considers appropriate.
- (15) Where the Commission takes action under subsection (14) it may-
- (a) apply to the court for an order to take such other action as it considers necessary to protect the interest of clients or creditors of, or investors in, the regulated person; or
- (b) take any other action provided for in subsection (1) or (2).
- 118. Notwithstanding any other provision, if the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, at any time and without a hearing, apply to the court for an order to take any action as it considers necessary. Application to the Court
- 119. (1) If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, upon a settlement or after a hearing, order a person that has breached any provision of securities laws to pay the Commission an administrative penalty of $500,000 for each contravention. Administrative Penalty
- (2) Any person in breach of any provision of securities law solely by reason of failing to file with or deliver to the Commission a document within the required time period shall be subject to an automatic penalty of $1,000, or as prescribed, for every day from the day the document was required to be filed or delivered to the day the document was filed or delivered.
- (3) A person who files a document or instrument with the Commission after the expiration of the period set out in this Act or as prescribed, may in writing request an opportunity to make representations to the Commission.
- 120. (1) In addition to the powers set out in section 119, the Commission may issue to any person who, there is reasonable cause to believe, has committed an offence referred to in Schedule I, a notice in the form set out in Schedule II offering the person the opportunity to discharge any liability to conviction in respect of that offence by Administrative fines may be imposed for certain offences payment of an administrative fine in accordance with the Schedule for that offence.

- (2) Where a person is given a notice under subsection (1), criminal proceedings shall not be taken against him for the offence specified in the notice until the expiration of twenty-one days commencing from the day after which the notice was served.
- (3) Where a person fails to pay the administrative fine referred to in subsection (1), or where he continues to commit the offence, after the expiration of twenty-one days following the date of receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (1) that person is liable on summary conviction for the original offence committed.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1) shall—
  - (a) specify the offence alleged;
  - (b) give such particulars of the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the allegation; and
  - (c) state—
    - (i) that criminal proceedings shall not be laid until the expiration of twenty-one days from the date of receipt of the notice where payment of the administrative fine is made and the commission of the offence is discontinued; and
    - (ii) the amount of the administrative fine and the fact that it is to be paid to the Accountant General whose address is to be stated.
- (5) In any proceedings for an offence to which this section applies, no reference shall be made to the giving of any notice or to the payment or non-payment of any administrative fine under this section, nor shall these be referred to in any document which is before the Court in connection with the proceedings, unless reference has been made by, or on behalf of the accused to the giving of such a notice, or, as the case may be, to such payment.

If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, after a hearing, order a person to pay to the Commission any amount obtained, or payment or loss avoided, as a result of a contravention of securities laws, plus a penalty of twice the amount obtained or payment or loss avoided.

- 125. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of securities laws, where a company has been convicted of an offence, under this Act, any senior officer who knowingly or recklessly authorised, permitted or acquiesced in the offence also commits the offence and liable to the penalty specified for it. Liability of senior officers
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of securities laws, where a person has been convicted of an offence under securities laws, any supervisor of that person who knowingly or recklessly authorised, permitted or acquiesced in the offence also commits the offence and liable to the penalty specified for it.
- (3) Reasonable reliance, including reliance on the advice of an attorney-at-law, in good faith upon a statement of the law contained in—
- (a) the securities laws;
  - (b) a judgment or declaration by a Court; or
  - (c) an order or publication of the Commission,
- is a defence in a proceeding under this section.
- 126. A person who contravenes any provision of the securities laws, other than one to which a specific offence applies, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000,000 and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years. General Offences
- 127. No proceedings against any person for a breach of any of the provisions of securities laws, or for a failure to comply with any of the provisions, may be commenced after the expiration of six years from the day upon which the breach or non-compliance was or ought to have been discovered. Limitation periods
- 128. Nothing in securities laws prevents the Commission from referring any matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions. Referral of matters to the Director of Public Prosecutions
- 129. The Commission may, where it appears that a person has breached a provision of securities laws or failed to comply with a requirement, directive or order given by the Commission— Disciplinary and enforcement authority of the Commission
- (a) conduct investigations and regulatory hearings; and
  - (b) impose one or more of the sanctions remedies, or other relief as may be prescribed in securities laws.

- 130. (1) At a hearing the Commission shall provide a reasonable opportunity for each person directly affected to be heard and shall give reasonable notice to each such person and may give notice to any interested market participant, and such notice shall include —
- Conduct of hearings
- (a) a statement of the time, place and purpose of the hearing;
  - (b) a reference to the authority under which the hearing is to be held;
  - (c) a concise statement of the allegations of fact and law; and
  - (d) a statement that if the person fails to attend at the hearing, the Commission may proceed without giving him further notice.
- (2) The Commission may—
- (a) issue a subpoena or other request or summons requiring a person to attend at a hearing, to testify to all matters relating to the subject of the hearing, and to produce all records relating to the subject of the hearing that are in his possession or under his control, whether they are located in the Currency Union or elsewhere; and
  - (b) require a person to give evidence orally or in writing on oath or affirmation as it thinks necessary.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), no person giving evidence before the Commission shall be compellable to incriminate himself, and every such person shall, in respect of any evidence given by him before the Commission, be entitled to all privileges to which a witness giving evidence before the High Court is entitled in respect of evidence given by him before the High Court.
- (4) On application by the Commission to the court, a person summoned under subsection (1) is liable to be committed for contempt, as if in breach of an order or judgment of the court, if the person neglects or refuses to—
- (a) attend;
  - (b) give evidence; or
  - (c) produce a document in the custody, possession or control of the person.

- (5) A hearing under subsection (1) shall be open to the public unless the Commission directs otherwise in order to protect the interests of the persons affected.
- (6) A person who is entitled to notice of a hearing under subsection (1) may be represented by an attorney-at-law and, subject to any rules made under securities laws, may present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at the hearing.
- (7) A witness at a hearing under subsection (1) may be advised by an attorney-at-law.
- (8) The Commission may admit as evidence at a hearing under subsection (1) any testimony or exhibit that it considers relevant to the subject-matter of the proceedings and may take notice of any fact that may be judicially noticed and of any generally recognised scientific or technical fact, information or opinion within its area of expertise.
- (9) The Commission shall make provision for all oral evidence presented at a hearing under subsection (1) to be transcribed.
- (10) The Commission—
  - (a) shall make a final decision in writing and state the findings of fact on which it is based and the reasons for it;
  - (b) shall send a copy of the final decision and reasons to each person entitled to notice under subsection (1) who appeared at the hearing; and
  - (c) may publish a summary of the final decision and reasons therefor in accordance with subsection (13).
- (11) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
  - (a) an order that is essentially procedural;
  - (b) an order that does not adversely affect the rights or interests of any person;
  - (c) an interim order or other order that the Commission may make under securities laws without holding a hearing; or
  - (d) an appointment that is made under section 101(2).
- (12) Notwithstanding subsection (10)(c), where an order is made pursuant to section 117(1), the Commission shall publish a summary of the order and reasons for the order.

- (13) The Commission may satisfy the publication requirement under subsection (10)(c) by publishing in the Gazette and—
- (a) publishing in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory; or
  - (b) posting on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public of such posting.
- 131. The Commission may impose terms, conditions, requirements and restrictions on any decision it makes, as the Commission deems fit. Conditions on decisions
- 132. The Commission may, at any time by notice in writing—
- (a) vary any term, condition, requirement or restriction imposed in any Commission decision; or
  - (b) may revoke a Commission decision;
- as it deems fit. Discretion to revoke or vary decision
- 133. (1) The Commission may—
- (a) on its own motion; or
  - (b) on an application from an aggrieved person,
- review any decision made pursuant to authority delegated under Article 20(7) of the Agreement, or made by a person licensed under Part II and shall provide a reasonable opportunity to make representations and give reasonable notice to each person directly affected by the decision. Appeals for review
- (2) The Commission shall, within thirty days of a request for review under this section notify the parties of the date, time and venue of the hearing to review the decision.
- (3) The Commission may set aside, vary or confirm the decision under review or make such decisions as it considers appropriate.
- (4) A decision that is subject to review under this section takes effect immediately unless the Commission grants a stay pending the completion of a review under this section.
- 134. (1) A person directly affected by an adverse decision, finding or order of the Commission may appeal to the High Court within fifteen days of the person's receipt of the notification of the adverse decision, finding or order. Appeals to the High Court

- (2) No appeal of a decision of a person licensed under Part II may be made under this section unless the person affected has taken all reasonable steps available to appeal or obtain a review of the decision pursuant to section 133.
- (3) An order that is subject to appeal under this section takes effect immediately, but the High Court may grant a stay pending the hearing of the appeal.
- (4) The Commission is entitled to appear and be heard on the merits of an appeal under this section or on any other application to the High Court relating to the exercise by the Commission of its powers.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the procedure for determining appeals shall be in accordance with the Civil Procedure Rules 2000 of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court.
- (6) On appeal under this section, the High Court may make, or may direct the Commission to make, any order that the Commission is authorised to make and which the High Court considers just and proper, or it may remand the case to the Commission for further proceedings subject to any conditions which, in the opinion of the High Court, are just.

PART XIV

CIVIL LIABILITY FOR MISREPRESENTATION

- 135. (1) Subject to this section, a purchaser who purchases a security distributed under a prospectus during its distribution period has the right of action for damages for any loss or damage sustained by the purchaser by reason of any misrepresentation in the prospectus, against each of the following persons-
- Liability for misrepresentation in prospectus, damages
- (a) the issuer or the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;
  - (b) a person who is a senior officer of the issuer at the date of filing of the prospectus;
  - (c) a person who authorised or caused himself to be named, and is named, in the prospectus as a senior officer or as having agreed to become a senior officer, either immediately preceding the date of filing of the prospectus or after an interval of time thereafter;

- (d) where the issuer is not a reporting issuer prior to the distribution, any person who was a promoter of the issuer within the twenty-four-month period immediately preceding the date of filing of the prospectus;
  - (e) a person whose consent has been filed as required by section 53(2) but only with respect to a misrepresentation in a prospectus derived from, or based on, reports, opinions, valuations, or statements that have been made by such person; and
  - (f) any other person who signed a certificate in the prospectus other than a person referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e).
- (2) No person, other than the reporting issuer or the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made, is liable under subsection (1) if -
- (a) having consented to become a director of the issuer, he withdrew his consent before the filing of the prospectus and the prospectus was filed without his authority or consent;
  - (b) the prospectus was filed without his knowledge or consent, he gave reasonable public notice of that fact forthwith after becoming aware of it; or
  - (c) after the filing of the prospectus and before the sale of securities under it, he became aware of a misrepresentation, withdrew his consent, and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal of the consent and the reason for it;
- (3) No person is liable under section (1)-
- (a) where, as regards a misrepresentation in a prospectus made by an expert or based on a report, opinion, valuation, or statement made or prepared by an expert-
    - (i) the misrepresentation fairly represented and was a correct and fair copy of, or extract from, the report, opinion, valuation, or statement of the expert; and
    - (ii) that person had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe, up to the time of the filing of the prospectus, that the expert making the statement or preparing the report, opinion, or valuation was competent to make it, had given his consent as required under section 53 and had not withdrawn that consent before delivery of a copy of the prospectus for filing, nor had the expert, to the knowledge of the person, withdrawn that consent before the sale of any securities under the prospectus;

- (b) if the purchaser bringing the action knew of the misrepresentation at the time of the purchase; or
  - (c) if, as regards a misrepresentation purporting to be a statement made by a public official or contained in what purports to be a copy of, or extract from, a public official document, the misrepresentation was a correct and fair representation of the statement or a copy of, or extract from, the document.
- (4) The liability of all persons referred to in subsection (1) is joint and several as between themselves with respect to the same cause of action.
- (5) A person who is found liable to pay a sum in damages may recover a contribution, in whole or in part, from a person who is jointly and severally liable under this section to make the same payment in the same cause of action unless, in all the circumstances of the case, the court is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (5), no underwriter is liable for more than the portion of the total public offering price represented by the distribution of securities underwritten by that underwriter at the time of making the purchase.
- (7) In an action brought under this section, the purchaser bringing such action need not prove that he was in fact influenced by the misrepresentation or that he relied on the misrepresentation in purchasing the security.
- 136. (1) Subject to this section, a purchaser who, during the distribution period, purchases a security distributed under a prospectus that contains a misrepresentation has a right of action against the issuer or the underwriter that sold securities to such purchaser under such prospectus for the rescission of the sale and the repayment to such purchaser of the price that was paid in respect of the security, provided that if the purchaser elects to exercise a right of action for

purchasers for rescission for misrepresentation
in a prospectus

rescission against the issuer or underwriter under this section, such purchaser shall have no right of action for damages against such issuer or underwriter under section 133.

- (2) In an action brought under this section, the purchaser bringing such action need not prove that he was in fact influenced by the misrepresentation or that he relied on the misrepresentation in purchasing the security.
- (3) The right of rescission under this section also applies to securities sold under a prospectus that offers them for subscription in consideration of the transfer or surrender of other securities, whether with or without the payment of cash by, or to the issuer, as though the issue price of the securities offered for subscription were the fair value, as ascertained by the Court, of the securities to be transferred or surrendered, plus the amount of cash, if any, to be paid by the issuer.

137. A person is not liable under section 135 or 136 for a misrepresentation in a prospectus or offering document if the person proves that the person-

Due diligence defence

- (a) made all inquiries that were reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (b) after doing so, believed on reasonable grounds that the statement was not a misrepresentation.

138. (1) Subject to this section, where an offering document, other than a prospectus, contains a misrepresentation, a purchaser who purchased a security offered by the offering document has a right of action for damages against the issuer and the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made.

Liability for misrepresentation
in other offering document

- (2) In this section, a purchaser who receives an offering document whether prior to or following the purchase of a security shall be deemed to have relied on the offering document in making his investment decision.

139. (1) Subject to this section, a purchaser of a security has -

- (a) a right of action for damages against the seller and such seller shall be liable for any losses or damages sustained; or
- (b) a right of action for rescission against the seller for rescission of the transaction,

Civil liability for trading contrary to Part XI

where the seller has made the sale to the purchaser contrary to Part XI.

- (2) Subject to this section, a seller of security has-
- (a) a right of action for damages against the purchaser and such purchaser shall be liable for any losses or damages sustained; or
  - (b) a right of action for rescission against the purchaser for rescission of the transaction, where the purchaser has made the purchase from the seller contrary to Part XI.

- (3) A person may bring an action under subsection (1) or (2) in respect of a contravention referred to in subsection (1) or (2) even though the person against whom the action is brought has not been charged with or convicted of an offence by reason of the contravention.
- (4) Every person who is a senior officer or employee of a reporting issuer that trades contrary to section 92 is accountable to the reporting issuer for any benefit or advantage received or receivable by the person or company as a result of the contravention of section 92, unless the person proves that he reasonably believed that the inside information had been published.
- (5) No person shall be liable under this section if the person who is bringing the action violated section 92 in respect of the trade that is the subject of the action.

140.

- (1) Subject to this section -
- (a) a person who contravenes section 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89 or 90, whether or not he also incurs any other liability, shall be liable to pay compensation by way of damages to any other person as a result of the contravention, whether or not the loss arises from the other person having entered into a transaction or trading at a price affected by the contravention; and
  - (b) each person who sustained a loss as a result of the contravention by a person of section 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88 or 90 whether or not the loss arises from the other person having entered into a transaction, has a right of action under paragraph (a) against the contravening person.
- (2) A person may bring an action under subsection (1) even though the person against whom the action is brought has not been charged with or convicted of an offence by reason of the contravention.

Liability for damages

- 141. (1) The Commission may apply to a judge of the High Court for leave to bring an action under this Part in the name and on behalf of an issuer or security holder and the judge may grant leave on any terms that he considers proper if the judge is satisfied that-
- Commission may seek leave to appear or intervene in an action
- (a) the Commission has reasonable grounds for believing that a cause of action exists under this Part;
  - (b) the issuer or security holder has failed or is unable to commence an action; and
  - (c) the Commission has given sixty days' written notice to the issuer or security holder who has refused or failed to commence an action.
- (2) The Commission may apply to a judge of the High Court for leave to appear or intervene in an action under this Part and the judge may grant leave on such terms as he considers appropriate.
- (3) The Commission may publish a summary of the terms of any settlement of an action commenced or intervened in by publishing in the Gazette and
- (a) publishing in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory of the Currency Union; or
  - (b) posting on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public of such posting.
- 142. The right of action for damages conferred by this Part shall not affect any other right a person may have. Non-derogation of rights

PART XV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 143. (1) For the purpose of securities laws, a determination made by the Commission, with regard to whether an applicant is “fit and proper” means a determination made with regard to an applicant’s-
- Fit and proper determination
- (a) financial status or solvency;
  - (b) educational or other qualifications or experience, having regard to the nature of the functions that, if the application is granted, the person will perform;
  - (c) ability to carry on the activity for which a person is sought competently, honestly and fairly; and

- (d) reputation, character, reliability and financial integrity of –
    - (i) where the person is an individual, the individual himself; or
    - (ii) where the person is a company, the company and any director, significant security holder, chief executive officer and any other officer of the company.
  - (e) satisfactory completion of any examination requirements prescribed by the Commission; and
  - (f) any other matter that the Commission may consider relevant.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Commission may, in considering whether a person is a fit and proper person, take into account –
- (a) a decision made in respect of the person by the Commission, any other domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority;
  - (b) any information in the possession of the Commission, whether provided by the person or not, relating to –
    - (i) the person;
    - (ii) any other person who is or is to be employed by or associated with the person for the purposes of the regulated activity for which the license is granted or the application is made;
    - (iii) any other person who will be acting for or on behalf of the person in relation to the regulated activity; and
    - (iv) where the person is a company in a group of companies –
      - (a) any other companies in the same group of companies; or
      - (b) any significant security holder, director or officer of any other company in the group of companies;
  - (c) where the consideration relates to a license under securities laws, whether the person has established effective internal control procedures and risk management systems to ensure compliance with all applicable regulatory requirements; and

- (d) the state of affairs of any other business that the person carries on or proposes to carry on.
- 144. (1) The Commission may issue guidelines on any matter it considers necessary to- Guidelines
- (a) give effect to securities laws;
  - (b) enable the Commission to perform its functions
  - (c) aid compliance with any other written law which may be administered or supervised by the Commission which may be in force from time to time; or
  - (d) regulate the market conduct of market participants.
- (2) A guideline issued under this section shall not be regarded as a statutory instrument.
- (3) Contravention of a guideline referred to in subsection (1) shall not constitute an offence, but this shall not prevent the Commission from taking action under section Part XIII.
- 145. (1) Before making or amending guidelines referred to in section 144, the Commission shall publish draft guidelines or draft amendments and shall consult with relevant stakeholders. Consultation on proposed Guidelines
- (2) Where, in the opinion of the Commission, any matter proposed to be dealt with in guidelines or by an amendment has become urgent, the Commission shall proceed to issue the guidelines or amendments, without following the process referred to in subsection (1), which guidelines shall be effective for ninety days, unless replaced by guidelines pursuant to subsection (1).
- 146. (1) In addition to any specific provisions elsewhere in securities laws the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission, make regulations necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of securities laws and giving effect to the functions and responsibilities of the Commission. Regulations
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1) the Minister may make regulations-
- (a) regarding any matter in relation to which the Commission may make a rule;
  - (b) specifying a provision of the regulations the contravention of which constitutes an offence;
  - (c) governing the procedures that are to be followed by the Commission in making and repealing rules made by the Commission; and

(d) repealing or amending a rule made by the Commission.

- 147. (1) The Commission shall publish in accordance with subsection (2), at least thirty days before the proposed effective date thereof— Publication of proposed regulations
- (a) a copy of any regulations that it proposes to recommend to the Minister;
  - (b) a concise statement of the substance and purpose of the proposed regulations; and
  - (c) a reference to the authority under which the regulation is proposed.
- (2) The Commission shall satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) by publishing in the Gazette and—
- (a) publishing in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory; or
  - (b) posting on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public of such posting.
- (3) After a proposed regulation is published in accordance with subsection (2), the Commission shall afford a reasonable opportunity to interested persons to make representations with respect to the proposed regulation.
- (4) The Commission is not required to comply with subsections (1), (2) and (3) if—
- (a) every person who will be subject to the regulations is named and the documents required by subsection (1)(a) to (c) are sent to each of them;
  - (b) the regulations only grant an exemption or relieve a restriction and are not likely to have a substantial impact on the interests of persons other than those who benefit under it;
  - (c) the regulations make no material substantive change in an existing regulation;
  - (d) the Commission for good cause finds that compliance with subsections (1), (2) and (3) is impracticable or unnecessary and publishes the finding and a concise statement of the reasons for it; or

- (e) the Commission, make regulations where the Commission believes that there is an urgent need for the proposed rule and that the delay involved in complying with subsections (1), (2) and (3) would be prejudicial to the public interest;
- (5) A person may petition the Commission to recommend the making, amendment or revocation of regulations.
- 148. (1) In carrying out the purpose of securities laws and its functions and responsibilities under securities laws, the Commission may make rules providing for such matters as may be necessary or expedient for giving effect to such purposes, functions and responsibilities. Rules
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), rules may vary the application of securities laws generally or with respect to their application to-
- (a) a person or class of persons;
  - (b) a security or class of securities; or
  - (c) a trade or class of trades.
- 149. (1) The Commission shall publish, in accordance with subsection (2), at least thirty days before the proposed effective date- Rule-making process
- (a) a copy of any rule that it proposes to make;
  - (b) a concise statement of the substance and purpose of the proposed rule; and
  - (c) a reference to the authority under which the rule is made.
- (2) The Commission shall satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) by publishing in the Gazette and-
- (a) publishing in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory; or
  - (b) posting on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a daily newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public of such posting.
- (3) After a proposed rule is published in accordance with subsection (2), the Commission shall afford a reasonable opportunity to make written representations with respect to the proposed rule.
- (4) The Commission shall publish each final rule, with any amendments that the Commission deems appropriate to make as a result of the public comment process under this section, as prescribed on or before its effective date.

- (5) The Commission is not required to comply with subsections (1), (2) and (3) if –
- (a) every person who will be subject to the rule is named and the documents required by subsections (1) (a) to (c) are sent to every such person;
  - (b) the rule only grants an exemption or relieves a restriction and is not likely to have substantial impact on the interests of persons other than those who benefit under it;
  - (c) the rule makes no material substantive change in an existing rule;
  - (d) the Commission for good cause finds that compliance with subsections (1), (2) and (3) is impracticable or unnecessary and publishes the finding and a concise statement of the reasons for it; or
  - (e) the Commission believes that there is an urgent need for the proposed rule and that the delay involved in complying with subsections (1) and (2) would be prejudicial to the public interest.
- (6) Where the Commission alters or revokes a rule, it shall-
- (a) publish notice of the alteration or revocation; and
  - (b) include in such a notice details of the alteration or revocation.

- 150. Where a rule made by the Commission conflicts with a regulations made by the Minister, the regulations made by the Minister shall prevail. Regulation prevails over rule
- 151. If the Commission considers it not prejudicial to the public interest to do so, the Commission may by order vary a rule made under section 148 as it applies to a person, trade, or security, or a class of persons, trades or securities. Power to vary Commission rules
- 152. If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may order that an exemption in a rule made under section 148 does not apply to a person, trade or security, or a class of persons, trade or securities. Power to remove exemption contained in Commission rule
- 153. The Commission may specify forms that may be used under securities laws and shall publish these forms on its website. Forms

- 154. (1) Where the Commission considers that it is in the public interest or necessary for the protection of investors to prevent—
- Appointment of receiver or receiver-manager
- (a) a person who is or has been in breach of, or has contravened securities laws; or
  - (b) licensee whose licence under securities laws has been suspended or revoked,
- from dealing with property under his or its control or direction, the Commission may apply to the High Court for an order under subsection (2).
- (2) The High Court may appoint a receiver or receiver-manager for the person or regulated person referred to under subsection (1) if it is satisfied that such order is in the interests of the customers, creditors, investors or other affected parties.
- (3) Where the Commission intends to apply to the High Court to appoint a receiver or receiver-manager in respect of the property of a financial institution, the Commission shall, before making the application, consult with the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank with regard to the proposed application.
- (4) The High Court may make an order under subsection (1) on an ex parte application by the Commission for a period not exceeding fifteen days.
- (5) The High Court may order a receiver or receiver-manager appointed under this section to receive such remuneration to cover its charges and expenses from the person, or regulated person referred to in subsection (1), and such remuneration shall be in such order of priority, in relation to existing charges, as the High Court sees fit.
- (6) The receiver or receiver-manager shall-
- (a) conduct its duties with the greatest economy compatible with efficiency and as soon as possible after its appointment; and
  - (b) file with the High Court, and with a copy to the Commission, a report stating its recommended course of action in the circumstances.

- (7) The receiver or receiver-manager, the Commission or any interested person may at any time apply to the High Court for the cancellation of an order made under subsection (1) or (4).
- (8) The provisions of the Companies Act relating to a receiver or receiver-manager shall apply to a receiver or receiver-manager appointed under this section.
- 155. (1) The High Court may order the winding up of a licensee or self-regulatory organisation, and appoint a liquidator in accordance with the Companies Act, subject to the modification that the licensee or self-regulatory organisation may also be ordered to be wound up on the petition of the Commission. Appointment of liquidator
- (2) A petition made by the Commission under subsection (1) shall not be presented except with leave of the High Court.
- (3) In any case where a petition is made by the Commission to the High Court for the winding up of a licensee or self-regulatory organisation—
- (a) the licensee or self-regulatory organisation shall remain in suspension and shall not carry on business during the pendency of the petition unless it is authorised to do so by the High Court and except in accordance with conditions, if any, as may be specified by the High Court;
  - (b) the High Court, may permit the licensee or the self-regulatory organisation to resume business either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the High Court may consider necessary in the public of the clients, investors and other creditors of the licensee or self-regulatory organisation if after such inquiry as it may consider necessary, it is in the opinion, that the licensee or self-regulatory organisation—
    - (i) is not insolvent;
    - (ii) is able to meet the requirements for licensing under this Act; and
    - (iii) its continuation in business is not likely to involve a loss to its clients, investors or members; and

- (c) if the conditions of paragraph (b) are not fulfilled, the High Court may order that the registrant or self-regulatory organisation be wound up.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, where an order of the High Court is made, for the winding up of any licensee or self-regulatory organisation or for the appointment of a receiver or receiver-manager, whether in pursuance of any petition made under this section or otherwise, such person as may be nominated by the Commission may be appointed as liquidator, receiver or receiver-manager, as the case may be.
- (5) No licensee or self-regulatory organisation shall pass a resolution for a voluntary winding up or commence a voluntary winding up without first obtaining written approval of the Commission, upon an application in writing accompanied by such documents and information as may be required by the Commission.
- (6) The Commission shall not grant the approval referred to in subsection (5), unless it is satisfied that-
- (e) the voluntary winding up will be affected in a manner that would not pose undue risks to customers, investors or members of the licensee or self-regulatory organisation; or
  - (f) adversely affect public confidence in the securities industry in the Currency Union, and such approval may be subject to such terms and conditions as the Commission determines.
- (7) Where the Commission intends to apply to the High Court to appoint a liquidator in respect of the property of a financial institution, the Commission shall, before making the application, consult with the Inspector of Financial Institutions with regard to the proposed application.
- (8) The provisions of the Companies Act relating to a liquidator shall apply to a liquidator appointed under this section.

- 156. Where the person in possession of any document required to be produced under the security laws claims a lien on the document- Lien
- (a) the requirement to produce the document shall not be affected by the lien;
  - (b) no fees shall be payable for or in respect of the production; and
  - (c) no production shall be without prejudice to the lien.

- 157. An order under securities laws shall have effect notwithstanding any obligations as to secrecy or other restrictions upon the disclosure of information imposed by any written law or any requirement imposed, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct. Secrecy
- 158. The Eastern Caribbean Central Securities Depository Limited is authorised to issue international identification numbers for any securities listed on any securities exchange licensed under securities laws. International identification numbers
- 159. (1) All documents or information required to be filed with, delivered to or provided to the Commission shall be submitted to the Commission in the prescribed manner. Filing of documents and public availability
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Commission-
- (a) shall make all documents or information required to be filed with it available for public inspection; and
- (b) may make all documents or information filed with it available to the public by posting such documents to the website of the Commission.
- (3) The Commission may hold in confidence all or part of a document or information referred to in subsection (1) if it considers that-
- (a) a person whose information appears in the document or information would be unduly prejudiced by disclosure of the information; and
- (b) the person's privacy interest outweighs the public interest in having the information disclosed.
- (4) Where a document or information is not expressly required to be filed but is required to be delivered or provided to the Commission by securities laws, the document or information shall not be disclosed under subsection (2), unless the Commission determines that such disclosure is in the public interest.
- 160. At the request of a person or an affiliate, the Commission may extend, any period within which the person or affiliate is, in accordance with the provisions of securities laws, obliged to furnish any document or information. Extension of period for providing information

  - (g) has been the senior officer of a company in the ten years immediately preceding-
    - (i) a winding-up order being made by a Court in respect of that company; or
    - (ii) the date on which the company has been placed in receivership;
  - (h) has been a senior officer of a former licensee or self-regulatory organisation whose licence has been revoked, unless such revocation was due to its-

- (i) amalgamation with another licensee; or
    - (ii) voluntary winding-up; or
  - (i) has contravened securities laws.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a pecuniary or proprietary interest is material where-
- (a) it may reasonably be expected to have a significant influence on the ability of the member to make an unbiased decision; or
  - (b) the person has beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over-
    - (i) ten per cent or more of the outstanding equity or voting securities of a person licenced under Part II, IV, V of the Securities Act, an investment fund or investment fund administrator under the Investment Funds Act; or
    - (ii) five percent or more of the outstanding equity or voting securities of a reporting issuer,except as a trustee of a trust.
- (3) If an interest referred to in subsection (1)(b) vests in a Commissioner by gift, will, succession or in any other manner for his own benefit, he shall-
- (a) Forthwith after the vesting of the interest comes to his knowledge, disclose the interest in writing to the Commission; and
  - (b) Within three months or as soon as practicable of the vesting of the interest coming to his knowledge either absolutely dispose of the interest or resign.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred thousand dollars and imprisonment for two years.

Article 17

Vacation of and removal from office of Commissioners

- (1) The office of a Commissioner is vacated -
  - (a) upon the death of the Commissioner;
  - (b) if the Commissioner is adjudged bankrupt;
  - (c) if the Commissioner is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Commission without its permission or reasonable excuse;
  - (d) if the Commissioner is certified by a Medical Board or Tribunal or declared by a Court to be mentally or physically incapable of performing the duties of a Commissioner;
  - (e) if the Commissioner is convicted of fraud or any other offence involving dishonesty;
  - (f) at any time by the Commissioner resigning from office by letter sent to the Chairperson of the Monetary Council and copied to the Secretary of the Commission; or
  - (g) if any of the disqualifications listed in Article 15A (1) occur.
- (2) Notice of any removal under paragraph (2) shall be given to the Government of the member territory or such other body by which the Commissioner was nominated and the Government or such other body shall within thirty days of such notice submit nominations to the Monetary Council for a replacement.
- (3) The Commission may act notwithstanding a vacancy among its members or any disability affecting any Commissioner.

Article 18

Meetings of Commission

- (1) Meetings of the Commission shall be held as often as may be necessary for the performance of its duties and in any event at least once every quarter, and such meetings shall be held at such places, times and days as the Commission may determine.
- (2) Notice of all meetings shall be given to each Commissioner.

(3) The Chairperson of the Commission may at any time call a meeting of the Commission and shall call a special meeting to be held within seven days of the receipt of a written request for that purpose addressed to the Chairperson by not less than two Commissioners.

(4) At a meeting of the Commission -

(a) the Chairperson of the Commission shall preside.

(b) if the Chairperson of the Commission is not present, the Deputy Chairperson shall preside; or

(c) if neither the Chairperson of the Commission nor the Deputy Chairperson is present, the members present shall choose one of their number to preside.

(5) The quorum for a meeting of the Commission is three (3) Commissioners.

(6) Every question for decision at a meeting of the Commission shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and, in the event that voting is equally divided, the Chairperson of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

(7) A Commissioner shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of the Commission or of a committee if the Commissioner participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Commissioners participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.

(8) A resolution in writing signed by all the Commissioners entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Commission or of a committee of the Commission shall be valid and effectual as if it had been passed in a meeting of the Commission or (as the case may be) a committee of the Commission duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Commissioners.

(9) Minutes, in proper form, of each meeting of the Commission, or a committee thereof, shall be kept under the direction of the Secretary.

(10) All decisions, resolutions, order, or rules made and legislation recommended by the Commission or a committee thereof, as the case may be, shall be recorded in the minutes.

(11) The minutes shall be confirmed at the next meeting of the Commission, or the committee, as the case may be, and a copy of the minutes when prepared and confirmed shall, in the case of a committee, be forwarded to the Commission.

(12) The Monetary Council is entitled, upon request, to have access to the minutes of the Commission or a committee thereof, and to receive from the Commission a copy of any of those minutes.

Article 19

Administration

(1) The Commission shall organise and regulate its administration, procedure and business in such manner as it considers will best ensure the performance of its functions and the proper exercise of its powers.

(2) The Commission may make rules governing its own procedure and such rules shall be binding on the Commission.

Article 20

Committees

(1) The Commission may, in the exercise of its duties establish standing or special committees and may refer or assign to a committee any matter for consideration, inquiry or management by the Commission.

(2) The Commission may appoint a person to be a member of a committee whether that person is a member of the Commission or not, and may appoint a member of the committee to be the Chairperson.

Provided that where a member of the Commission has been appointed to serve on a committee that member shall be the Chairperson of the committee.

(3) Any reference or assignment under paragraph (1) and every appointment under paragraph (2) may be withdrawn or revoked by the Commission at any time, and no such reference or assignment shall prevent the exercise by the Commission of any of its duties.

(4) Subject to paragraph (2), a committee established under this Article may elect one of its members to be the Chairperson and, subject to any specific or general direction of the Commission, may regulate its own procedure and business.

(5) Meetings of a committee shall be held at such times and places as the Chairperson of that committee may determine or as the Commission may direct.

(6) Each committee shall keep minutes of its meetings in accordance with Article 17 (9) and shall keep the Commission informed of its activities.

Article 21

Delegation

(1) For the purposes of the administration of securities laws, the Commission may, by order, delegate any responsibility, power or function conferred on it by securities laws to any -

- (a) Commissioner;
- (b) Senior officer of the Commission
- (c) Any Body or authority approved by the Monetary Council
- (d) A committee established under Article 19; or
- (e) Self-regulatory organisation licensed under the Securities Act or any other written law that is administered by the Commission.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), the Commission shall not delegate its powers to-

- (a) make regulations;
- (b) hear appeals under securities laws.

(3) The Commission may revoke a delegation.

(4) A delegation under this Article does not preclude the exercise by the Commission of any of the duties so delegated.

(5) All decisions made, and minutes of all meetings held by a delegate under paragraph (1), shall as soon as practicable be recorded in writing.

(6) A delegate shall forthwith notify the Commission of every decision made by him.

(7) Any minutes recorded under paragraph (5) shall as soon as practicable be forwarded to the Commission.

(8) Subject to securities laws, a person aggrieved by a decision of a delegate may, within fourteen days of the decision, apply to the Commission for a review of that decision.

(9) For the purposes of this Article, “a senior officer of the Commission” means a person holding or acting in the office of-

- (a) Chief executive officer;

- (b) Deputy chief executive officer; or
- (c) General Counsel.

Article 22

Disclosure of interest

(1) A Commissioner who is in any way interested, whether directly or indirectly, in any transaction or arrangement with the Commission or in which the Commission is interested or whose material, pecuniary or proprietary interest in a company, partnership, undertaking or other business is likely to be affected by a decision of the Commission shall disclose the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Commission at which he is present after the relevant facts come to his knowledge.

(2) A disclosure under paragraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting and after the disclosure the Commissioner making it shall not vote on the matter and, unless the Commission otherwise directs, shall not be present or take part in the proceedings of any meeting at which the matter is being discussed or decided by the Commission.

(3) A Commissioner shall be treated as having an indirect interest in any transaction or arrangement with the Commission or in which the Commission is interested if he is a director, shareholder, trustee, agent or employee of the company or undertaking that is a party to the contract or proposed contract with the Commission or where his spouse, parent, child, step-child, brother or sister or the parent, child, step-child, brother or sister of his spouse holds an interest in that company or undertaking.

(4) For the purpose of this Article, a general notice given to the Commission by a Commissioner to the effect that he is a member of or otherwise associated with a specified company or undertaking and is to be regarded as interested in any contract which may after the date of the notice be made with that company or undertaking shall be deemed to be a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract so made.

Article 23

Staff

(1) The Commission may employ, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit a chief executive officer who shall not be a Commissioner.

(2) The chief executive officer shall perform such functions as may be conferred on him by the Commission.

(3) The chief executive officer is subject to the direction of the Commission and is responsible to the Commission for the execution of its policy and management of affairs.

(4) A person who is appointed chief executive officer under this Agreement or any other written law that is administered by the Commission shall, forthwith after the appointment, declare every interest he has in any security and thereafter he shall not, while holding office as chief executive officer-

(a) participate directly or indirectly, in any securities market operation transaction in which he has a material interest and which is subject to regulation by the Commission pursuant to securities laws; or

(b) engage in any other business, vocation or employment other than that of serving as chief executive officer.

(5) The Commission may appoint, hire or retain, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, an expert to assist it in any manner that it considers necessary.

(6) Where the Commission appoints an expert to advise it on the development of specific policies, regulations, or other regulatory proposals of the Commission or a self-regulatory organisation, the expert shall formulate and report his views to the Commission in writing and the Commission may, if it thinks fit, make it available to the public.

(7) The Commission may employ, on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, such professional, technical and other officers and such other staff as it may be necessary for the exercise and discharge of its duties.

Article 24

Confidentiality

(1) Subject to paragraph (2) no person shall make use of or disclose any confidential information other than for the administration or enforcement of securities laws.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any other written law, or rule of law, upon a written request the Commission or any duly authorised person or entity may disclose the information referred to in paragraph (1)-

- (a) pursuant to a court order; or
- (b) to-
  - (i) a representative of the government of any of the member territories;
  - (ii) a duly authorised representative of the Central Bank, the Financial Intelligence Unit or a regulatory agency in any of the member territories;
  - (iii) an expert hired or retained by the Commission; or
  - (iv) a duly authorised representative of a securities or foreign regulatory authority, in connection with the administration and enforcement of securities laws, any other written law that is administered by the Commission or similar legislation of any foreign jurisdiction if the Commission is satisfied that the information will be treated as confidential by the person or agency to whom it is disclosed and used strictly for the purpose for which it is disclosed.

(3) Paragraph (1) applies to any person who receives information under paragraph (2).

(4) For the purpose of this Article, “confidential information” means any information obtained as a result of a person’s relationship with the Commission in the course of his duties in the exercise of the Commission’s functions under securities laws but does not include information that is or has already been made available to the public.

(5) Every member, officer and employee of the Commission shall be required to take an oath of secrecy.

PART IV

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Article 25

Funding

The Commission shall be funded by -

- (a) the payment to the Commission of any fees or other charges in relation to -

- (i) an application to the Commission for any licence, authorisation, approval, exemption, waiver or modification;
  - (ii) any duties exercised by the Commission or by a committee established by the Commission;
  - (iii) the approval of prospectuses;
  - (iv) the receipt and monitoring of the continuing disclosure obligations of issuers;
  - (v) anything done in the performance of a function relating to take overs, amalgamations or other reorganisations;
  - (vi) any other matter for which provision is made under securities laws;
- (b) the payment to the Commission of a levy, as may be prescribed, in respect of every purchase and sale of securities recorded by a securities exchange or notified under its rules;
  - (c) such sums of money or such other assets as may accrue to or vest in the Commission from time to time, whether in the course of the exercise of its duties or otherwise; and
  - (d) such sums as may be paid to the Commission from time to time by or on behalf of the Participating Governments with the approval of the Monetary Council, by way of appropriation or subvention.

Article 26

Reserve Fund

- (1) The Commission may establish a Reserve Fund into which may be paid:
  - (a) fees, levies or any penalties imposed or charged under securities laws;
  - (b) any sums appropriated by a Participating Government for this purpose; and
  - (c) any other sums which the Commission with the approval of the Monetary Council may determine.

(2) The Commission may withdraw any funds from the Reserve Fund for the purpose of exercising its duties under securities laws.

(3) The funds in the Reserve Fund may be invested by the Commission on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Commission. Except that the Commission shall not invest its funds in securities offered by any person under its supervision or regulation.

(4) No disbursement from the Reserve Fund may be made by the Commission within the first five years of the establishment of the Reserve Fund.

Article 27

Financial year and estimates

(1) The financial year of the Commission shall begin on 1 April and end on 31 March in each year, or such other period as the Monetary Council may determine except that the first financial year of the Commission shall begin on the establishment of the Commission under Article 3 and end on the following 31 March or such other date as the Monetary Council may decide.

(2) The Commission shall not later than 31 December in each financial year or at least three months before the end of its financial year submit to the Monetary Council for its approval estimates of its income and expenditure for the next financial year.

(3) The Commission shall discharge its functions to ensure that its revenue is not less than sufficient to meet all sums properly chargeable to its revenue account.

(4) Any excess of the revenue of the Commission for any financial year over the sum properly chargeable to its revenue account for that year shall be applied by the Commission for the purposes of the Commission.

(5) Where any deficit arises on the operations of the Commission or is budgeted for in the Estimates of expenditure of the Commission the Participating Governments shall provide a subvention to the Commission to meet the deficit in such proportion as may be determined by the Monetary Council.

Article 28

Accounts

- (1) The Commission shall keep proper accounts and records of its transactions.
- (2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, prepare a statement of the accounts of the Commission for the financial year including an income and expenditure account and balance sheet.

Article 29

Auditors and audit

- (1) The Commission shall, with the approval of the Monetary Council, appoint auditors.
- (2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, submit the statement of accounts prepared for the year under Article 27 to the auditors for audit.
- (3) The auditors shall prepare a report on the accounts and send the report to the Commission who shall, as soon as practicable after its receipt, send a copy of the report and a copy of the statement of accounts to the Monetary Council.
- (4) The auditors shall include in the report -
  - (a) a statement whether, in their opinion, the income and expenditure account for the financial year to which the report relates give a true and fair view of the Commission's income and expenditure;
  - (b) a statement whether, in their opinion, the balance sheet for the financial year gives a true and fair view of the Commission's financial affairs at the end of that financial year.
- (5) An auditor appointed by the Commission has a right of access at all reasonable times to the books, accounts, vouchers and other records of the Commission and is entitled to require from officers of the Commission such information and explanations as he considers necessary for the performance of his duties as auditor.

Article 30

Annual Report

(1) The Commission shall, not later than three months after the end of each financial year of the Commission, prepare and submit a report on its activities during the financial year to the Monetary Council.

(2) Subject to the confidentiality requirements of Article 23, the Monetary Council may at any time request the Commission to provide it with information concerning any matter relating to the duties of the Commission and the Commission shall provide the information requested within fourteen days of such request. All information submitted to the Monetary Council should be treated as confidential.

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS

Article 31

Consultation and co-operation

(1) The Commission shall consult and co-operate with the Central Bank or any other agency in any member territory that exercises regulatory authority under any enactment over a financial institution, insurance company or other body in order to minimise duplication of effort, to maximise the protection of investors and the interest of the public.

(2) On the request of a foreign regulatory authority, the Commission may provide assistance in accordance with this Article-

- (a) if the authority making the request states that the purpose for the request is to assist the authority in conducting an investigation in order to determine whether any person or entity has violated, is violating, or is about to violate, any laws or rules relating to securities matters that the authority administers or enforces; and
- (b) whether or not the facts stated in the request disclose a violation of any of the laws of a member territory.

(3) Any assistance provided by the Commission under this Article shall be without prejudice to any investigation or examination which the Commission may carry out under securities laws, regardless of whether the Commission utilised any power given to it for the purposes of providing such assistance.

(4) The provisions of this Article shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law providing for assistance by a member territory, or any Government department or agency, to a foreign State or agency.

(5) The assistance which may be provided for the purposes of this Article is the disclosure of any information which the Commission has in its possession or is able to obtain under any of the powers given to it by securities laws.

(6) Any request for assistance received under securities laws from a foreign regulatory authority and the information or other assistance obtained or provided pursuant to such a request is subject to the confidentiality requirements of Article 23.

- (7) Paragraph (6) shall not apply to any disclosure ordered by a court-
- a) for the purpose of any civil proceedings in relation to any matter under securities laws; or
  - b) for the purpose of any criminal proceedings.

(8) Upon being ordered to make a disclosure referred to in paragraph (7), the Commission shall forthwith notify the foreign regulatory authority concerned, of the order.

(9) The Commission may co-operate in the work of national, regional or international organisations dealing with the regulation of securities markets.

Article 32

Procedural By-Laws

- (1) The Commission may make procedural by-laws
- (a) respecting the calling of and conduct of business at meetings of the Commission;

- (b) respecting procedures for the initiation and holding of hearings by the Commission in accordance with securities laws;
- (c) respecting the procedure for appeals and review of orders of its delegates and self-regulatory organisations;
- (d) with the approval of the Monetary Council, establishing a code of conduct governing the activities of Commissioners and the officers and employees of the Commission in order to avoid conflicts of interest and other practices that the Commission considers undesirable;
- (e) respecting any other matter relating to the organisation, procedure, administration or practice of the Commission.

(2) As soon as practicable after the making of any by-laws, the Commission shall submit a copy of same to the Monetary Council.

Article 33

Amendments

(1) An amendment to this Agreement may be proposed to the Monetary Council by the Commission and shall be effective when it is agreed to by all the Participating Governments.

(2) All amendments to the Agreement shall be published in the official Gazette of member territories.

Article 34

Disputes

(1) Any dispute between the Participating Governments concerning this Agreement or between the Commission and a participating Government, shall be submitted to arbitration by a tribunal of arbitrators appointed pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) If the dispute is between only two parties, each party shall be entitled to appoint one arbitrator, and the two parties shall together appoint a third arbitrator, who shall be the Chairperson of the tribunal;

- (3) If the dispute is between three or more parties, each party shall be entitled to appoint one arbitrator and all the parties shall together appoint an additional arbitrator, who shall be the Chairperson of the tribunal.
- (4) If, within thirty days of receipt of the request for arbitration, any party has not appointed an arbitrator or if within thirty days of the appointment of the arbitrators the parties have not appointed the third arbitrator or, as the case may be, the additional arbitrator, any party to the dispute may request the Chief Justice of the Eastern Caribbean States Supreme Court, or such other person of authority as may be prescribed by the Monetary Council to make the required appointment.
- (5) The procedure of the tribunal shall be fixed by the arbitrators, but the Chairperson of the tribunal shall have full power to settle all questions of procedure in any case of disagreement with respect thereto.
- (6) A majority vote of the arbitrators shall be sufficient to reach a decision which shall be final and binding upon the parties.
- (7) The Chairperson of the tribunal shall be entitled to vote, and in the event of a tie, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

Article 35

Immunities and privileges

- (1) To enable the Commission to fulfil the functions with which it is entrusted, the status, immunities and privileges set forth in this Article shall be accorded to the Commission in the territory of each Participating Government.
- (2) The Commission, its property and its assets, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall enjoy immunity from every form of judicial process except to the extent that it expressly waives its immunity for the purpose of any proceedings by the terms of any contract.
- (3) Property and assets of the Commission shall be immune from search, requisition, confiscation, expropriation or any other form of seizure.
- (4) The archives of the Commission shall be inviolable.

(5) To the extent necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement, all property and assets of the Commission shall be free from restrictions, regulations, control and moratoria of any nature.

(6) The official communications of the Commission shall be accorded by Participating Governments the same treatment as the official communications of other Participating Governments.

(7) The Commissioners, officers and employees of the Commission:

(a) not being local nationals, shall be granted the same immunities from immigration restrictions, alien registration requirements and national service obligations and the same facilities as regards exchanges restrictions as are accorded by Participating Governments to the representatives, officials and employees of comparable rank of other Participating Governments.

(b) shall be granted the same treatment in respect of travelling facilities as is accorded by Participating Governments to representatives, officials and employees of comparable rank of other Participating Governments.

(8) (a) The Commission, its assets, property, income and its business, shall be immune from all taxation and from all customs duties in respect of goods acquired by, or service rendered to it for its own use. The Commission shall also be immune from liability for the collection or payment of any tax duty in respect thereof except when it resells a good acquired by it to a member of the public.

(b) No tax shall be levied on or in respect of salaries or emoluments, including pensions and gratuities, paid by the Commission to the Commissioners, officers and employees of the Commission.

(9) No civil or criminal liability shall attach to the Commission, or a Commissioner, Executive Director, an employee or an agent of the Commission for an act done in good faith in the performance of a duty or in the exercise of a function or power of the Commission under securities laws.

Article 36*Accession

(1) After the entry into force of this Agreement, a territory which is not a signatory to this Agreement may in the discretion of the Monetary Council be permitted to accede to this Agreement on such terms and conditions as the Monetary Council may determine.

(2) Any such territory shall deposit on or before a date appointed by the Monetary Council an Instrument of Accession with the Commission which shall signify such deposit and the date thereof to the parties to this Agreement.

Article 37*Signatories

This Agreement shall be open for signature by any Participating Government.

Article 38*Ratification

This Agreement shall be subject to ratification by the signatory Participating Governments in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures. Instruments of Ratification shall be deposited with the Director General of the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States who shall transmit certified copies to each Participating Government.

Article 39*Entry into force

This Amended Agreement shall enter into force upon the deposit of five Instruments of Ratification and Participating Governments undertake to take all steps necessary for the implementation of this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the representatives of the Participating Governments being duly authorised in their behalf, have signed this Agreement.
